Voting Machine Contract In Allegheny County To Be Contested

Ask Injunction On Contract For Voting Machines

Guthrie Goes Into Allegheny
County Court In Voting
Machine Contract

CLAIMS CONTRACT FOR MACHINES IS ILLEGAL

Voluminous Complaint Is Made On Commissioners'
Recent Award

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—Francis S. Guthrie, member of the Citizens' Voting Machine Committee of Allegheny County, today asked for an injunction to restrain county commissioners and other elected officials from carrying out their contract with the Poole Engineering Company of Baltimore to furnish $1,000,000 worth of voting machines for use in this country.

The petition was filed in Common Pleas court before Judge Frank P. Patterson. A temporary injunction is sought until a final hearing can be held.

Charges Made
In the bill of complaint, a voluminous 13 page document, Guthrie charges:

The contract with the Poole Company is illegal, void and has no effect.

The $1,000,000 bond posted by the Maryland Casualty company is utterly inadequate because it should have covered the entire amount of the contract—$1,000,000.

The bond does not protect Allegheny county by binding the Poole Company to faithfully perform its contract.

The bond protects the county only with respect to furnishing a stated number of voting machines.

The bid of the Poole Company was not submitted in the special envelope required for such bids.

Specifications of the county provided for a non-party 50 candidate machine, but the Poole Company did not bid on such a machine nor has it.

PA NEW OBSERVES

The other day we saw one of those high-rated traveling homes. It was parked on South Jefferson street and at first sight appeared to be an ordinary bus. A few yards farther we could see that it was not a bus, for a sign on the rear read: "Suits Us." What suited the apparent travelers in that vehicles turned out to be a well-nigh perfect little dwelling, curtains, sink, heater, fan, etc.

An old world game, "vacci," or "polin" is being revived here these days by firemen and youths of the city. It is played with five iron balls that are considerably smaller than the one used for bowling. Two players on a side. Both sides try to roll or throw their iron nearest to a fifth ball, which is thrown out first. Twenty-one points win the game.

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Sept. 18.—At Las Vegas, Nev., today Secretary Wilbur is dedicating the Boulder Dam. I had been asked to go there in case Arizona senators should start a filibuster, and keep talking and talking and prevent the dedication.

Fruit Growers Visit Orchards

Party Of Fourteen Makes Tour Of Five Leading Orchards Of County

APPLES READY
IN SHORT TIME

"Under average but a fair crop" is the way County Farm Agent Harold R. McCulloch sums up this year's fruit crop of Lawrence county orchards.

Wednesday afternoon the county agent, with John Ruef, fruit specialist of State college, and a group of a dozen men greatly interested in the management of orchards, and themselves fruit growers, made a tour of five local orchards.

Investigate Crop
The tour was made in order to give the growers an idea of the extent of the fruit crop throughout the county, to give them the advantages of seeing how other growers care for their orchards, and a chance to ask any questions about orchard work from the county farm agent or the State college expert.

Owners of the farms visited by the growers were most gracious in conducting the men through their orchards and explaining the important facts learned through many years of experience. During the tour Mr. Ruef discussed methods of spraying and the general care that must be given fruit trees in order that they give a paying production.

Besides examining the apple orchards, the growers looked over the peach and grape crops.

Night Blooming Cereus At Oak Street Home Has Beautiful Flower

Home of Mrs. Minnie M. Sullivan, 605 Oak street, was the center of unusual interest last evening due to the fact that her night blooming cereus or cactus as it is better known, was in bloom for the first time in thirty years that it has been in her possession.

This unusual specimen of plant life, known horticulturally as Cereus Grandiflorus never blooms but at night, and then generally but once about every twenty-five years.

Mrs. Sullivan had more or less warning all day Wednesday that the rare opportunity of seeing this plant in bloom was about to occur and as a result, her home was a busy place last night as friends and others interested in such a rare event gathered there to see the wonderful and very beautiful bloom.

The bloom on or from the leaf of the plant, which is approximately six feet in height in this instance. It is in from something like an egg in shape and like a cocoon in appearance, as it grows out from the leaf.

TWO ARE BELIEVED
FATALLY INJURED

(International News Service)
POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 18.—Investigation was begun today into a blast in the Sherman Coal Company mine here last night which killed four men and injured two others so badly they may die.

The dead are:
Joseph Waldo, Pottsville; Chester Conroy, Mechanicsville; Max Saboluskie, Minersville, and J. J. Leininger, Tremont.

Leo Saboluskie, son of one of the men killed and Edward Tobias, Tremont, were injured in the explosion and were brought to a hospital here where physicians today said they might die of their hurts.

The blast, source of which is not definitely known, came as the day and night shifts in the mine, which is under the city of Pottsville, were being changed.

Six Are Trapped
The six men were in the Skidmore vein, which is about 150 feet below the river level here when the explosion occurred. Immediately, gases filled the shaft, and rescue workers who went to the aid of the trapped men were hampered in their efforts by the fumes.

The body of Waldo was not recovered for several hours, when rescue crews dug away a heap of debris which had fallen over him.

Mine officials said the blast might have been caused by a powder shot or by a gas explosion. Both city officials and officers of the Colliery Company joined in the investigation of the cause of the explosion today.

The younger Saboluskie and Tobias were badly burned and received fractures of the legs and arms.

Resume Work On New Church

Joists Arrive For New Epworth M. E. Church On East Side

Due to the non-arrival of the joists for the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church, work has been delayed for some two weeks. These joists come from the Pacific Coast, by way of the Panama Canal and with such a long water haul delays are not uncommon. These joists are of unusual size and could be procured only on the coast.

The joists have now arrived and work has again been resumed on the church. The unusual building weather of this summer made it possible for the men on the job to speed up their work and as a result the building was several weeks ahead of the schedule. This speed brought them to the place where they needed the joists, before the time when the joists should have been here.

With the joists on the ground the work will be rushed ahead and by cold weather the building should be under roof.

The institution was closed when bank examiners reported a $130,000 shortage of funds.

I read with interest in the press, the lecture scores in other states, and listen to their arguments and radio debates. I hear them say the country's wet, or that the country's dry, that they have proved beyond a doubt this fact to you and I. I read where Joe McGloopus wins, an ardent wet is he, and this should be enough of proof to lads like you and me, that all the nation now is wet and wants their bottled beer, but listen to the radio, what is that voice I hear, it's notice that McGloopus wins, and he is dry as bone, and he invites the moisty lads to lick their lips and groan. The fact is that they both are wrong and neither wrong or right, for lectures all depend upon who makes the hardest fight. And whether it is wet or dry depends upon view, of those who register and vote, the weather's eighty two.

Cleveland Financier Likely To Get Call Today In Merger Suit

INFLUENCED SON TO FAVOR MERGER

(International News Service)
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 18.—Samuel Mather, senior partner in Pickands, Mather & Company and for many years a guiding figure in the affairs of Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company, was expected to take the stand as a defense witness here today in the common pleas court trial of the injunction suit against the merger of the Youngstown concern with Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Considerable interest was attached to the anticipated appearance of the Cleveland financier, who is the owner of an immense block of Sheet & Tube stock which he voted in favor of the merger, and who influenced his son, S. Livingston Mather, to vote his personal holdings for the deal.

Newton D. Baker, chief counsel for the defense, admitted as the trial was resumed this morning, that it was "practically certain" Mather would be called to the stand to relate what he knows of the merger negotiations.

Pickands, Mather & Company, previous testimony has shown, spent $9,000,000 in buying Sheet & Tube stock to vote in favor of the merger.

Interest in the merger trial yesterday was heightened by the revelations of Henry G. Dalton, a partner in Pickands, Mather and a director in both Sheet & Tube and Bethlehem, who was recalled to the stand as a defense witness.

The lobby of the Blackmore hotel was filled with sound. There was an angry altercation between two men going on, and a little group had formed around them which was almost as noisy as the two persons involved. Suddenly above the din the younger man in the altercation said to the older man that he knew enough about him to have him put into jail, and also have him kept there for a good long time and that next morning he intended to have him put there, too.

At this, the older man became quiet; he turned upon his heel, left the hotel, and went straight to a lawyer's office. He instructed the lawyer to file suit for slander on the ground that the young man had attributed to him the guilt of some criminal offense, and the lawyer followed instructions.

In due time the trial began. The young man argued that his words were not actionable since they specified no crime of which the older man was supposed to be guilty. Nevertheless the trial went on.

STAR LORE

HOW DID THE WORLD GET HERE?

By Arthur DeV. Carpenter

THERE WAS a time when our sun was living a lonely life—had no children in the shape of worlds to orbit around it. Till one day—no there weren't any days yet—a strange star came along near enough to the sun to pull upon it very hard with its gravitational mass, tearing off quantities of the outer layers of the sun. Then these torn-off nuclei started to follow the strange star, leaving the sun by a tangent path. However, the sun hung onto the torn-off nuclei—torn-off bunches of sun—and they started in orbit paths around the sun. One of these nuclei was the infant earth.

Two Witnesses From Chicago Fail To Identify Geisking As Lingle's Slayer

(International News Service)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 18.—Having waived extradition, Ted Geisking, accused of the murder of Alfred Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter, today was to be taken to Rising Sun, Ind., where he faces a number of charges. Geisking, a member of Indiana's Trautman gang, refused to waive extradition to Illinois, asserting that he was afraid of being "framed" for the racketeering reporter's murder last June 9.

Two witnesses to the Chicago gang killing failed to identify the Indiana gangster yesterday as Lingle's slayer. Other witnesses, however, will view the suspect at the suspect at Rising Sun later on. Chicago will have first claim on Geisking, it was said, provided Illinois authorities find their case strong enough.

Habib Car Crashes
Instead the Habib car crashed into his machine, then went up over the sidewalk and out onto Washington street again and into a truck of the American Railway express. The truck was not badly damaged.

Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch answered a call to the scene, and ordered all the participants into the police station to make their reports. Both parties claimed the other in the wrong and the effort at adjustment of the case between the principals was unsuccessful. Habib left stating that he would bring action at once.

Deaths of the Day

Martha A. Ligo.

Word of the death of Martha A. Ligo, aged 41, of 18 East Grant street, came as a shock to her many friends and acquaintances this morning, when it was heard she had died at 11:30 Wednesday evening at the family home, following a cerebral hemorrhage, which she had suffered about 1:30 Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ligo had been ill for the past week, with what was presumably rheumatism, but her condition was not considered serious at all until she was stricken Wednesday, when she lapsed into unconsciousness and from which she never rallied.

Miss Ligo was born in Wilmington township, Mercer county, the daughter of J. E. and Margaret Christy Ligo and has been a resident of the city of New Castle most all her life. She was employed at the time of her death in the county treasurer's office and prior to that in the office at the School Administration building, and her jovial nature and kindly disposition had endeared her to all who came in contact with her through business, or socially.

this morning that the grapes of all farms visited were quite good. They got along pretty well this year and it is likely that the bulk of the crop will be taken from the vines this week.

As for the apples, they will be ready for the picking in 10 days and the bulk will be removed from the trees in three weeks. Of course, according to McCulloch, a few earlier varieties have already been removed from the trees.

The tour started at about 1 p. m. Wednesday from the farm of J. Audley Book and sons between Princeton and Liberty grange hall on the road connecting the Butler and New Castle-Slippery Rock highways.

After looking over Mr. Book's orchard the tourists proceeded to the farm of Bovard & Baldwin, Harlansburg road. Mr. Baldwin showed them around and explained various methods in getting the most possible out of an orchard.

Then to the farm of M. M. Ingham, Neshaunock road, and from there to the Rankin Johnston orchard near New Wilmington. The last orchard on the tour was that of J. W. Cummings, a short distance from New Wilmington.

Those in the party were J. A. Book, Charles Harbison, M. M. Ingham, R. Johnston, John Johnston, Bruce Johnston, J. W. Cummings, Howard Cummings, William Walker, Carl Baldwin, J. W. Fullerton, Fred Seeley, County Farm Agent McCulloch and John Ruef.

ever had such a machine in actual operation.

Want Re-advertising
The petition specifically names County Commissioners Joseph G. Armstrong, E. V. Babcock and Chas. C. McGovern and county treasurer John Francis and county controller Robert G. Woods.

In addition to asking an injunction restraining the commissioners to carry out the contract, Guthrie asks that the county be required to re-advertise for bids and be required to award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

The bill further asserts that the automatic voting machine company of Jamestown, N. Y., the only other bidder for the contract, met all the requirements and was the lowest bidder.

Attorney Charles F. C. Arensburg presented the petition for Guthrie.

Believe Hitler Planning "Coup"

German Newspaper Charges
Adolph Hitler With Plan
To Overthrow Government

CHARGES DENIED BY HITLER'S CLAN

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Sept. 18.—Charges that Adolf Hitler, German Fascist leader whose party made unexpectedly large gains in the recent elections, is planning a "putsch" to overthrow the German republic were made today by the Democratic newspaper Berliner Zeitung Am Mittag.

Hitler, the newspaper charges, plans to transfer his headquarters to Berlin, intending to train "storm divisions" for street fighting when the time for the "putsch" is ripe. The newspaper declares the coup will be attempted this winter when unemployment is expected to be at its peak.

Charges Denied.
In connection with the article, it was recalled Hitler vigorously denied planning such an attempt in a recent speech. Together with General Erich von Ludendorff, Hitler engineered a "putsch" some years ago. The anti-Republican activity lasted but one day, after which Hitler was arrested and his followers disbanded.

Hitler's headquarters described today's report as "not authentic."
Following publication of Hitler's alleged plans, the socialist and communist press announced an agreement to call a general strike of all workers to fight any attempt at a Fascist "putsch."

In the conservative newspaper Neueste Nachrichten, published in Leipzig, an article appeared today stating Germany was preparing a big offensive for this fall aimed at revision of the Young plan for reparations payments. The report was denied in official circles, where it was said the rumor was due to British efforts to revise war debts.

Assurance was given Germany will continue to fulfill the terms of the Young plan as long as possible.

Hunt For Schooner Believed Sunk With Crew Of Twenty-Four

Schooner Missing, Hunt Starts
On Pacific Coast; Empty
Lifeboat Found

(International News Service)
MARSHFIELD, Ore., September 18.—The fate of the missing wooden steam schooner South Coast, with 24 men aboard, remained a mystery today as the United States coast guard cutter Cahokia patrolled Pacific waters off Crescent City, Cal., in search of the vessel and its crew.

Meanwhile, a more extensive search was planned along the coast between Rogue river and Brookings, where, it is feared, the South Coast was wrecked. The ship was due in Marshfield from Crescent City at 4 a. m., yesterday. She left Crescent City Tuesday noon and had not been sighted until the Tanker Tejon radioed that a deck-house, apparently belonging to the missing ship, was seen floating on the water.

The Tejon's wireless message was the first intimation that disaster may have overcome the South Coast. Later the steamer Lake Benbow reported picking up an empty lifeboat off the South Coast and sighting drifts of cedar logs, part of the missing ship's cargo.

This interesting product of modern civilization adds casually:

"I have been in the liquor-running and hi-jacking racket for almost two years, but I didn't hang out with Chicago gangs, didn't know Lingle, nor Zuta, nor any of that outfit."

About Lingle, the gangster very probably tells the truth. Whoever shot the Tribune reporter had probably never seen him, and asked no questions. For a few papers of cocaine and $500 you can buy the murder of anybody, "put on the spot."

As for the supply of drugs, that will run short, under the present system. Detectives arrested an assistant baggage master on the big liner Europa Tuesday, as he came off the ship carrying $20,000 worth of morphine.

CLARK CAUGHT DRIVING STOLEN PORTER AUTO

Will Be Turned Over To Court
Parole Officer J. W.
Dunlap

Walter Clark, caught last night by Motorcycle Officer Criswell while in possession of the stolen car of J. E. Porter of West Hickory, Forest county, Pa., is being held by the police authorities until he can be turned over to Parole Officer J. M. Dunlap. This action is being taken due to the fact that Clark is now out under parole for a similar violation of the law. When Porter reported the theft of his car, Officer Criswell went to the Allen street district, where most of the cars stolen recently have been found abandoned, and awaited the possible arrival of the thief with the car.

After a wait of two hours he was rewarded by seeing the car approach, and rushing to it as it stopped he found young Clark driving it. He arrested Clark and brought him to the central police station.

"Hippo" Police Mascot Has New Owner Today

City police have lost their mascot, a huge white bulldog, known as "Hippo." The canine is now in the possession of "Coaltown" Davis who was given the dog today when he said he would like to have the dog. Furthermore the dog is going to eat as Councilman Reeves gave Davis 25 cents with which to buy bones for the dog.

The dog in his day has been a good dog. He has the markings of a good bull terrier and lived a long time around the Elliott Blair mill. As soon as Davis put a rope on the dog and marched down the street, Policeman Longstreth took after Davis.

"Who gave you that dog?" demanded Longstreth.

"That fellow over there," said Davis, pointing out a reporter.

"All right you can take the dog away," said Longstreth who added: "I'll bet a dollar the dog will be back before night if he isn't tied up."

Peculiar but true whenever dogs of good breeding stray to the police station they are treated good and in many instances persons who wanted good watchdogs have received them from the police, when the latter knew that their owners had deliberately abandoned them or left them behind when they left the city.

Zachary Davidnik, 48, of 22 Fountain avenue, Ellwood City, will leave New York harbor on the "New York" of the Hamburg-American line for the U. S. S. R. The entry permit was obtained for him in New Castle after numerous and intricate documents had been signed and much "red tape" had been encountered.

College Enrollment Will Be About Normal

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 18.—When commenting on the business depression and "hard times," do not neglect to add to the list of unsolved puzzles why colleges attract students despite economic conditions.

Among the 400 students who enrolled at Westminster College during the first two days of registration, 16 are former students who have been out in the world working for two, three and four years. Just why they quit their jobs to return to college at this particular time makes interesting economic discussion.

Some claim that it is better to attend college when work is scarce and to make up for it financially when work is plentiful and when there is work six days a week. Others claim that they have earned more money during the past year and are therefore better able to return to college this fall. Choose your own ticket.

One former student who returned is E. Ward Campbell, Erie, Pa. Campbell, after completing his freshman year in the fall of 1925 and the spring of 1926, had to quit college and get work. Since then he has been working in Erie and in California. Now after four years, Campbell returns to start on the remaining three years of his education.

Thomas Herriot, New Wilmington, who attended Westminster three years ago, is again registered in the college. Herriot has been working as a post-office employee, a census taker, and in various other capacities in the three years he has been out of school.

Registration at Westminster continued this morning from 9 o'clock until 11. The convocation chapel service was held at 11 o'clock. Registration will continue again this afternoon from

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Peter's Adventures

A DISTURBING QUESTION

Peter was just on the point of asking Busy a question when he glanced up to find Soldier Ant's eye upon him. She had overheard them whispering together.

"Busy," called Soldier Ant sharply, and Busy looked up at the big Ant.

"Busy, this is the first time I have ever known you to belie your name and idle," declared Soldier Ant bluntly. "To be sure you are entertaining a guest, but even so you shouldn't let pleasure interfere with your business. I expect to meet you and Boy on your way back to the new home, and I return all the way to this hill to find you two have not started. What's the matter?"

"Nothing, Soldier," Busy spoke up for herself. "I was telling the boy the truth about many things and it took much longer than I thought for. But don't you worry. I am going to do my share as a mover, and the boy is going to help me. I should have to make five trips and more to carry all the eggs that he and I together can carry in one trip. Just watch us."

Busy and the boy were just ready to step through the doorway when Big Soldier hailed them.

"Wait a moment, Busy, please. What was that angry scream that pierced my ears as I came through the passage?"

This question so startled Busy that she came near to dropping the eggs she carried. As for Nurse, if that guilty party hadn't been black in the face she would have turned all colors of the rainbow. Peter, however, kept his head and promptly answered Soldier Ant's question.

"The voice you heard was Nurse's, and it scared me worse than it did you. You see, Nurse mistook me for an enemy and would have attacked me if good old Busy here had not rushed up and saved me."

"Ah, that explains it! All's well that ends well," declared Soldier.

Gas On Stomach Is Dangerous

TELLS HOW TO STOP IT

Gas, Pain, Bloating and a feeling of fullness after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Too much acid irritates the delicate stomach lining, frequently causing chronic gastritis and dangerous ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming a gas that distends the stomach and often seriously affects the heart. It is genuine folly to neglect such a condition or to treat with artificial digestive aids that cannot neutralize the stomach acid. A better way is to get from any reliable drug store some Bismarck Magnesia (powder or tablets) and take a little in water after each meal. Bismarck Magnesia will stop the worst gas attack quickly and without embarrassment. Taken right after eating, it prevents formation of gas and acids so there is no sourness, bloating or pain. Pleasant and perfectly harmless to use—Bismarck Magnesia does give wonderful relief in nine out of ten cases. Ask your Doctor or Druggist. Try it today.

Three Pittsburgh Bandits Get $700 In Two Holdups

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—Three bandits today obtained loot totaling more than $700 from three men in two north side holdups.

Simon Alberts and M. Kratz reported to police that the trio, all armed, robbed them near Kratz's home at an early hour this morning. Alberts reported losing $700 in cash. Kratz said the men took $30 in cash from him.

The trio later robbed Earl Daranick of 50 cents while he was sitting in his automobile in Riverview park. Daranick reported the men overlooked $30 in an inside pocket.

Police today started an intensive search for the holdup trio.

Kayser gives the name "silk garment" to this type of all-in-one glove silk undergarment. In gleaming, lustrous weave it is kept lovely when you wash it in Palmolive Beads. That's why Kayser recommends this new soap for use on their underthings, silk stockings and gloves.

(Above) A mannequin is wearing a cloak of Corticelli silk and the sheers of sheer silk stockings, also made by Corticelli. Because they go in and out of the washbowl so often, Corticelli wants you to wash silk stockings in Palmolive Beads.

Every washing instruction tag the great silk manufacturers print, whether for lingerie, hose, gloves or wash suits, instructs women to use Palmolive Beads. Surely there can be no greater authority on the right soap for silks.

Cuticura Healed Severe Itching Burning Rash on Face and Arms.

"I broke out with a rash on my face and arms which alarmed me very much. The itching and burning were very severe and when I scratched eruptions formed. My clothing aggravated the breaking out a great deal, and I was embarrassed because my face and arms were disfigured. I lost much rest at night on account of the terrible irritation.

"After seven months of suffering I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to give them a trial. I purchased more, and in four and a half months I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Wm. Anderson, 512 No. 40th St. Phila., Pa., April 10, 1930.

Splendid Garden Show At North Street School

Students Exhibit Flowers
And Vegetables Grown
From Seeds Planted
In Spring

DOZEN PRIZES
ARE AWARDED

On two large tables in an exhibition of North street school are the results of a summer of work, expended effort and tender care on the parts of 90 members of the school garden club. And wonderful results, to be sure.

A flower and vegetable show was staged at North street school on Wednesday and it proved to be much more of an event than the teachers in charge had anticipated. A large number of truly wonderful garden products were brought by the youngsters and certainly shows how very interested the junior gardeners are in the subject.

Exhibits were in place in the morning and in the afternoon awards for the best bouquets of flowers and the best vegetables were given by the following judges: Mrs. Harry Wetlich, Mrs. William Hovey and W. A. Hoffmaster. Mrs. Wetlich and Mrs. Hoffmaster are members of the Lawrence County Garden club, and Mr. Hoffmaster is the principal of North street school.

Little Virginia Schmidt received an award for growing the largest beet; Benny Julian brought the largest carrot; Sara May grew the largest head of cabbage; Irene Conti had the largest tomato; Lawrence Conti had the largest pepper and Lawrence Zone the largest bean.

Then, for the best display of vegetables, the first prize went to Maurice Mervis, second to Virginia Schmidt and third to Pauline Peluso.

First prize for the best display of flowers was won by Victor Ross, Bill Pattison received second prize and Edith Stanley the third.

Seeds for the vegetables and flowers were given to the club members last spring through the Lawrence County Garden club. The flowers and vegetables on exhibit were grown from those seeds.

Perhaps the strangest exhibit was the gourd fruit, brought by Florence Longstreth. The gourd, a melon-like fruit with a hard rind, is unique because it has a flower blossom growing from it. The fruit is matured.

Then, another strange plant resembled a cabbage somewhat but is a cross between a turnip and cabbage. There were many hot pepper brought, yellow tomatoes, beets, carrots, large bouquets of snap dragons and multi-colored and widely varied kinds of fall flowers. The snap dragon is the school flower.

Miss Helen Orotelend and Miss Evelyn Spencer, nature teachers, were in charge of the exhibit.

The young students took great interest in their little gardens throughout the summer. Many had very small and cramped space to grow anything in but they managed to get results, and results of which to be proud.

The article was published in the Polish language and an interpreter was used in changing it into the English language for the consideration of the jury.

KNOBLOCH HAS INJURED EYE

Youngstown Doctor Says Hold-up Victim's Eye Seriously Hurt

Charles Knobloch, local young man, recent victim of a gang of jewel robbers, may possibly lose the sight of his left eye, according to a Youngstown physician who is treating him. The eye has failed to respond to treatment and under examination yesterday young Knobloch was unable to distinguish objects placed before him. He was hit in the eye with the butt end of a gun carried by one of the holdup men.

Meanwhile the hunt for the jewel thugs continues. The officials are following several clues. The exact color of the license plate carried by the car hinders the investigation.

Toledo haunts are being scoured and all pawnshops and jewelry stores watched. Knobloch has been a frequent visitor to Toledo and it is believed that he was spotted by some of the gangsters and they laid for him.

Reid Denies Any Part In Hold-up

Man On Trial In Ellwood Case Says He Was Not In Ellwood

ADMITS SEEING BLAIR AT NIGHT

Offering an alibi that covered his movements until 6 o'clock on the night of June 11, 1930, James Reid, accused by Elmer Blair of being the other man in the holdup of the Ellwood City office of Manufacturers' Light & Heat company, went on the stand in his own behalf in court room No. 1 of the Lawrence county court Wednesday.

Reid denied having seen Blair at all before noon, or in the afternoon, claimed that he had been busy painting his sister's house on Addis street all day, but admitted that he and Blair had gone out about 6 o'clock and done some drinking.

Blair implicated Reid in a signed confession and in his testimony Wednesday morning, Reid admitted knowing Blair but denied vehemently having been in Ellwood City on June 11 at any time, denied taking part in the holdup, and said that he had been struck by officers during his questioning in the Ellwood City police station.

Questioned on this by Attorney George W. Muse, his answer was held up by an objection on the part of District Attorney Powers. Judge Hildebrand said he would allow the testimony to see if this practice was being followed by officers here. Answering the question Reid said that Officer Gondell and a man named Baughman had struck him. Gondell was called to the stand and said that Reid had called him a liar and that after warning him several times, he had slapped him. Judge Hildebrand then told the jury that such testimony had no bearing on the case, but that it would constitute grounds for assault and battery.

County Detective Lee was called to the stand and said that Reid had denied having seen Blair at all on June 11, at the time of the questioning on June 13 in Ellwood.

This testimony closed the case and arguments to the jury started about 4 o'clock.

Edenburg Boy Pilot Averts Crash, Passes Federal Quiz

While his father and a Federal aeronautical examiner looked on in wonder, Arthur Barlett, 17-year-old Edensburg boy, averted a crash by successfully landing a monoplane whose powerful engine stalled while high above the Pittsburgh-Butler airport, Tuesday.

Barlett, who is the son of Rev. S. H. Barlett of the Edensburg Methodist church, immediately took off in another plane and succeeded in passing the Department of Commerce quiz for a private pilot's license.

Father and son had gone to the field, which is located about eight miles from Butler on the Pittsburgh-Butler road. Federal Examiner Murphy was on hand to conduct Arthur's examination along with 17 other applicants for government licenses.

While hundreds of feet overhead to complete the flying examination the engine of his Fleet monoplane suddenly went dead. The plane was traveling at a rate of 90 miles per hour. The plunge to earth brought the craft over high trees where the boy pilot narrowly escaped.

The quiz consisted of a written report on aeronautical theory, and flying and circling at a height of 2,000 feet.

The boy pilot was credited with over 20 hours of solo flight before applying for the license. He received his early flying experience in New Castle at Bradford field, under Maj. J. O. Bolanz of Youngstown, coming to the local field early this summer.

Barlett who recently joined the Business Administration school at Westminster college will continue his flying, Rev. Barlett said.

NOTES OF TROOP "F" NATIONAL GUARD OF NEW CASTLE

Names of eight to comprise the rough riding exhibition unit which will participate in the Armistice Day program and future horse riding exhibits, will be made known Saturday by Sgt. Willard Miller, who has been supervising practices for the group. It has been learned that the eight will be dressed in white uniforms for the special stunts programs in which they will take part in the future.

Guardmen will receive government pay for the Mt. Gretna period, at the armory Friday evening. Capt. Bintrim urges all to be present. Approximately $1,000 will be paid off.

Capt. Bintrim was busily engaged Wednesday evening in completing the next three-month drills. The schedule is a lengthy one and the commander's work can be greatly lessened if guardmen will observe punctuality in their attendance.

Today is dry-cleaning day. Exactly 509 pieces of uniform equipment, blankets, etc., will leave the armory.

Blood Pressure Of Body Measured Like Gauging Of Water In A Hose

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

If the condition of the arteries and small blood vessels, and with that the related question of high blood pressure, is the central part of the problem of the degenerative diseases of middle age, we should all try to find out as much as is known about them. Unfortunately this is not much. We know a great deal about what I might call the fringes of the matter, but the heart of the mystery is still unsolved.

The words "blood pressure" mean something that is quite simple. The heart, in pumping the blood around through the blood vessels of the body, must maintain a certain pressure. Just as when you water your lawn with a hose there must be a certain pressure exerted to throw the water out from the nozzle of the hose. That pressure can be measured by putting a gauge over the end of the hose. In fact, the pressure under which blood would spurt from the end of a cut artery is the blood pressure.

You can, however, measure the pressure of the water in the hose by compressing the hose at any point behind the nozzle. The amount of pressure you are compelled to exert to shut off the stream of water is the same as the pressure of the water as it comes out of the nozzle. That is the method we use of measuring human blood pressure. We wrap a rubber bag around the arm; it is connected both with a rubber bulb and with a measuring gauge. When we squeeze the arm by means of the bulb so tight that no pulse can be felt, the gauge will measure the amount of pressure we have to use. The exact moment when the pulse disappears (or reappears after being obliterated) is the point which we read on the gauge as the blood pressure.

This is called the systolic blood pressure, because it is the pressure exerted at the time the heart is in systole or is in contraction. When the heart relaxes or as we say, is in diastole, the pressure is naturally lower and is called the diastolic pressure. That also we can measure.

The normal systolic blood pressure for human beings is 120 millimeters of mercury, which means that the heart will raise a column of mercury 120 millimeters. It is usually spoken of simply as 120. The normal diastolic blood pressure of human beings is 80.

By "normal" we mean the average of a large group of people of all ages, sexes and races. The most important of these three factors is age. The blood pressure generally is low in infancy and childhood and tends to rise gradually as age advances. For a person of twenty to thirty 120 is the normal systolic blood pressure. For a person of 40 to 50, it is normal somewhere higher. In general, and allowing for certain other factors, your (correct) systolic blood pressure may be said to be 100 plus your age. Thus, if you are 45, your systolic blood pressure should be about 145.

Life insurance companies generally set an arbitrary limit of 160 for systolic, and 100 for the diastolic pressure. They refuse to accept candidates with higher readings than these. What makes the blood pressure rise as age advances? Tomorrow we may discuss that question.

Clairton Man Is Freed Of Murder

Clairton Grocer Given Acquittal
Of Murder Charges By Jury Today

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—James Garden, Clairton grocer, today was acquitted of a charge of murder by a jury in criminal court. The verdict was read when court convened this morning with visiting Judge James B. Barnett, of Perry county, on the bench.

The jury took the case late yesterday and although it was reported a verdict was reached last night it was not read until court opened today.

Garden's wife wept as she greeted her husband following announcement of the verdict.

Garden was accused of killing Samuel Lall, of Clairton, one of a group of Fourth of July celebrators who were firing a home-made cannon in front of the Garden home.

Counsel for the state contended that Garden, provoked by the noise, had fired at the group twice, one of the shots resulting in the death of Lall the next day.

The defendant claimed the revolver was discharged accidentally as he leaned from a second story window to plead with the youths to stop firing the cannon.

Rev. R. B. Watkins Visits At Erie, Pa.

Men In Charge Of Mission Work
Meet For A Conference In Erie Wednesday

Rev. Watkins of the City Rescue Mission spent a very profitable day at Erie when the Mission men met from the different parts of the Central district of the I. U. G. M. to hold a conference.

He reports a few echoes from the meeting.

Rev. Quartell of Dayton, Ohio, opened the session, giving a good talk on "Revivals."

Rev. Cottrell of Youngstown spoke on "The Mission Man's Need." He said in part there should be no distinction made between the men coming into the Mission, for we look on the outward appearance—but God looketh on the heart, and they should never forget the pit from which many mission superintendents were lifted.

Rev. Blackmore gave a message on "Fun and Fellowship," speaking on how so many people waste their time doing the unnecessary things of life, and neglect the most important, the spiritual, neglecting to speak to others of the Christ, the only one who can pardon.

Each mission man present gave his testimony in the evening.

Rev. Birch of Toledo closed with a wonderful sermon on "Playing with Fire." At the close of the meeting several men responded to an altar call, and gave their hearts and lives to Christ.

Evidence Offered Showing Wire
Tapping At Farm Owned
By Ruth McCormick

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The senatorial campaign expenditures committee was expected to adjourn its investigation of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick's primary campaign here today.

First documentary proof of telephone wire tapping on Mrs. McCormick's farm at Byron, Ill., was offered the committee yesterday by T. B. Thompson, publisher of the Rockford Daily Republic. Mrs. McCormick, Republican nominee for United States senator, is controlling stockholder of the paper.

Thompson unexpectedly submitted photographic evidence of the taps which bore out charges of espionage and telephone wire tapping made by Mrs. McCormick and Attorney General Clegg, the congresswoman's attorney.

Eight Imperiled In Blast At Cleveland

Terrific Explosion Demolishes
Building And Partly Destroys
Another

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Sept. 18.—The lives of eight persons were imperiled here today when a terrific explosion demolished a one-story drygoods store building, partly destroyed an adjoining structure and damaged two dwellings.

The blast, the force of which was felt for nearly two miles around, was believed by firemen to have been caused by gas. Damages by the explosion were estimated at $25,000.

Mrs. C. A. Peets, 77, suffered a nervous collapse when the explosion hurled the roof of the store building across the street against the house where she was living. Seven persons living in a house directly back of the demolished store were thrown from their beds by the force of the blast.

Correct this sentence: "I sometimes get a case postponed because I'm not ready for trial," said the lawyer, "but I never do it in an effort to cheat justice."

Scientist Sees Solution Of Cheap Rubber Problem

Experiments With Guayule Bush Lead Botanist To Predict Revolutionizing Of Tire Business

SLAB OF CRUDE RUBBER
SALINAS, Cal., Sept. 18.—One of the world's major industrial problems—the production of cheaper rubber—has been solved, according to Dr. William B. McCallum, an eminent botanist.

Dr. McCallum declares that after 20 years of experimenting all over the United States, he has discovered that the guayule bush, a plant with a high rubber content, can be successfully grown near Salinas, situated about 100 miles south of San Francisco.

This means the elimination of large transportation costs from the rubber plantations in Guiana, Africa and South America. Dr. McCallum's backers are so confident of the value and certainty of his experimental discoveries that he is constructing a $150,000 rubber plant near Salinas.

Millions of guayule bushes, said to yield up to 1,000 pounds of rubber each four years, are being grown on the company's 25,000-acre tract. The guayule is a Mexican shrub. To extract the greatest amount of rubber possible, the American company crushes the plant and takes out the juice by machinery.

The problem of cheaper manufacture of rubber has engaged many of the best minds in the country. Thomas A. Edison, Henry Ford and Harvey Firestone to name only three, have for years financed experiments to grow rubber here or to discover method of manufacturing an artificial rubber substitute.

DR. WILLIAM B. MCCALLUM
If Dr. McCallum's high hopes are realized it may mean the revolutionizing of the entire rubber tire business, besides lowering the price of countless other articles in which rubber is used.

The history of the giant rubber industry is comparatively short. The substance was first discovered in America. When Columbus reached the West Indies, he found the Haytians playing with crude rubber balls. It was first used in England about 1820 for erasers. At that time a half-inch piece of the then mysterious substance cost about seventy-five cents.

An ingenious Scotchman named Charles Macintosh some years later utilized the material in the manufacture of raincoats. Subsequently it was found that rubber would repel gas as well as water and surgeons used it in tubes.

The first initial step in the evolution of the modern rubber tire was taken by Goodyear when he invented the process of vulcanizing. There followed cycling on rubber tires. The present-day automobile came into use soon after an Irishman named J. B. Dunlop perfected the air-cushion tire.

But until now manufacturing rubber products has been handicapped because the product of the rubber-juice yielding tree could only be grown in the distant areas of the tropics.

Dr. McCallum's exhaustive research works appear to have eliminated that very considerable item of expense.

GROUNDLESS FEARS

Stepping o' nights, with her escort, to flirt with the festive hot dawg at the lunch wagons which fringe the roadways of Long Island, the Debutante is providing wrinkles of perplexity in Muhmah's alabaster brow.

"Think what it would mean," moans Muhmah. "If Dotter should some night encounter Meadows, the butler, in one of those awful places!"

Muhmah's fears are quite groundless. A lunch wagon is the last place on earth in which Meadows, the butler, would betake him on "heavenly huff." Dotter might "encounter" him at the Ritz, but never in the dim, greasy, malodorous and interesting precincts of a Long Island Wayside Pup Parlor.

RETORT

Recently the highbrows have been making cold-unfeeling remarks about the billboard men whose outdoor signs they say, smear the beauties of the landscape and turn a vacation jaunt through the countryside into a nightmare.

The billboard men have been taking it on the chin, but the other day one of them hit back.

"It's all right for the architects to beef," he said. "But when them lads has gained a reputation as beautifiers, it'll be time enough for them to talk. For every work of art to their credit they've got a lot o' cock-eyed barns an' delirium tremens farm houses to answer fer."

"The billboard men at least put some color an' life an' personality an' pep into their work, and that's more'n you kin say fer most o' th' architecture that freckles th' North American landscape!"

REALISM
Life is full of uppercuts and grief! When A. E. Anson was cast for the role of the lawyer in Bayard Veiller's play, "That's the Woman," he spent two weeks tailing a Blackstone Brother of his acquaintance. He observed his actions in court. He studied his demeanor and conduct in the office. He noted his deportment in the home.

Mr. Anson's characterization in the play is an exact counterpart of the mode and manner of his legal friend, and yet, speaking of the actor's portrayal of the role, a leading Drammer Dammer said of him:

"He mistakes fuss for art."

Woman Enters Plea To Fatal Shooting

Claims That She Shot Admirer In Self Defense

BEAVER, Pa., Sept. 18.—Mrs. Frances Britz, 27, Beaver Falls, pleaded in court to voluntary manslaughter in connection with the fatal shooting of James Galizia, 38, her brother-in-law.

Judge William A. McConnell placed Mrs. Britz on probation for 10 years on condition that she pay the costs and be on good behavior.

Mrs. Britz told the court that Galizia, father of five children had been making love to her for some time. On August 23, she said, he called at her home and threatened to kill her, her mother and brother. If she would not run away with him, she refused, she said, and being afraid of him, procured a revolver. That evening he came back, and again threatened her. She was alone in the room with Galizia, she said. He suddenly reached for a gun, and she shot him in self-defense.

GARDNER NEWS

Gardner residents have greatly enjoyed reading all the congratulatory letters and felicitations which have been received by the president of The News company, on account of the 50th anniversary of the paper, and desire to add their word of praise and commendation to what has been already so fittingly expressed. What finer tribute can Gardner bring than our subscription list? There are 29 homes in Gardner, and our paper boy, Francis Alexander, delivers 29 papers every day. Surely this is a 100 per cent testimonial, and one of which all concerned, from the president of the company down to the most humble worker, may well feel proud. Gardner readers all join sincerely in the warmest congratulations over past achievements, and in best wishes for future success.

The pastor of our little flock, Dr. Albert J. D. Shoemaker, asked the congregation at Gardner chapel to observe last Sunday as Harvest Home Sunday and he would preach a sermon suitable for the occasion. Fruits, vegetables and flowers in profusion were brought in and tastefully arranged. Frank M. Hay went to the farm of Mr. Stephanov and brought corn, wheat and oats in shock and sheaf, flowers decorated every window. Mrs. Hay and Mrs. E. O. Alexander brought large baskets of lovely blooms. The sermon was one of the minister's best efforts and was highly appreciated by an audience which nearly filled the chapel. While there was no special music the singing by the congregation was fine and the piano playing by Virginia Hay was highly complimented. Altogether the observance of Harvest Home was a time of rejoicing and thanksgiving to the Giver of every good and a picture of the many tokens of divine favor will linger long in many hearts.

Yellow and white were the colors used throughout. Mrs. Morrow brought a beautiful big white cake with six yellow candles. HANDS calloused from golf... lips chapped by the wind... necks and noses sunburned and freckled... here's how to repair this damage.

Lay in a stock of "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly. At home on the dressing table. At the club in your locker. And apply it freely. For example: If the hands are calloused or rough and chapped, or too dry, or sunburned, or the cuticle is inclined to form hangnails, massage them with a generous amount of "Vaseline" Jelly before retiring and wear soft gloves to bed.

If lips are chapped, apply "Vaseline" Jelly every time you think of it. It is obtainable everywhere, in tubes and jars.

These are simple, easy things to do. Do try them. Your looks will benefit enormously.

Charles E. Allen Writes To "News"

Charles E. Allen of Park avenue, a veteran of the World war and a reporter of The News staff, who is undergoing treatment in the U. S. Naval hospital at Washington, D. C., writes to his coworkers as follows:

Hot Off the Back!

Dear Gang: All's quiet on the Western Front. We have met the doctor and what he didn't do to us is plenty. Seemed like he took everything out but my brains. Maybe he would have done that if he could have found any.

I was having a swell time until they cut me up. Now I feel awful bad. The doctor said he thought I would feel all right now. I don't. I'm never coming back again. I'm content to let bad enough alone.

I paid my respects to about all the New Castle boys down here before I went into the hospital. Saw "Chuck" Wirsing, Arthur Wimer, Lee Robinson and Harold Hunter.

They have suffered considerable more from the drought down here than in a lot of places. Fortunately they have a bountiful water supply and stretch fire hose with sprinklers attached all about the capitol grounds. The White House is a veritable bower of green things, so well do they keep things watered. Mosquitoes are unusually bountiful in spite of the dry weather and we suffer considerably from them at night here in the hospital.

Could not wish for any better treatment than the are giving me and have plenty to eat. The food is excellent and they do everything to make one comfortable.

I may be able to get out of the hospital tomorrow, but they said they would not release me until the stitches are out, which will be in about a week.

Tell "Jake" he got his Austin too soon. They are demonstrating a car down here they are going to make for $200. It has no axles, is hung on aeroplane cord, just like the big aeroplanes. They claim it will not upset. It is to be bought by mail and is shipped in a packing case, when you get it unpacked you just set the packing case in your back yard and it will do for a garage. It has a 20 horse power airplane motor and one of its features is that you do not have to bother with greasing it. They demonstrated it here Sunday and it did 60 miles an hour over rough ground in a field. If any of you want to place your order let me know and I will get it in for you. You don't pay anything down. Just put in your order and pay the expressman when it comes.

I went up to see Carl Hanna at the Walter Reed hospital. He is getting along slowly but states he is making progress.

I saw Lindbergh and Coste on their way to have luncheon with Hoover. Would have gone along with them but they explained that the table would be quite crowded as it was, so I felt I had better not intrude.

The department of Commerce is erecting a building, which covers an area of from Jefferson to East street and Washington to North street.

That's where a great amount of our money goes.

The temperature is considerably warmer down here than at home. I suppose it will feel just like winter when I get back. Will close now, looking forward to getting back with you again the last of the week.

Federal Economy Program Starts In Washington

Government Departments Instructed By Hoover To Save On Appropriations

HOPE TO AVOID THREATENED DEFICIT

Cabinet Officers Are Making Surveys To Find Out Where Money Can Be Saved

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—A new campaign of federal economy, with government departments under instructions to make extraordinary efforts to save on appropriations already made by Congress for the present fiscal year, today is under way at the behest of President Hoover.

The economy program will be speeded by the return of cabinet officers already on vacation. Special surveys already are under way in some departments to find ways of curtailing expenditures.

Deficit Threatened
The administration not only is taking steps to avoid a possible threatened deficit due to a decline in national income, but also is looking forward to the possible retention of the income tax slash ordered last year by Congress as an aid to business.

Economy injunctions thus far, for the most part, have dealt with budgets being prepared for submission to Congress next winter, but the administration also is hopeful of reporting to Congress that it has not spent all of the money authorized in the present year.

The plan is the essence of the Coolidge "two percent plan" under which department heads were ordered to cut their expenditures two percent under the amount actually voted by Congress. The Hoover plan, however, is designed to save as much as possible.

Both the army and navy may feel the effects of the effort to preserve the reduction and stave off a possible future deficit.

Will Save Millions
Secretary of the Navy Adams said that the new high command of the navy would immediately take up proposals to save millions of dollars during the present year. He denied, however, that the department had been ordered specifically to cut expenses $30,000,000.

While no definite amount of saving has been decreed, it is hoped that economies can be effected by changes in operation, he said. These may include laying up of more ships and curtailment of maneuvers. Some time ago the navy announced decommissioning plans which were estimated to save more than $6,000,000 a year.

The War Department, also may save money by curtailing orders for new types of instruments of war, and restricting rivers and harbors appropriations as much as possible.

Special committees are said to have been created in several departments, in addition to the usual budget committees, to effect economy.

Population figures are hard to remember, but you can guess the size of a town by the number of cows in what is called a landing field.—The Akron Beacon Journal.

Local Firm Secures Appointment From Diamond Syndicate

Mather Bros. Co. Are Now The Authorized Representative Of Virgin Diamonds

Mather Bros. Co., well known jewelers of New Castle, today announced that word had been received from the Holland office of the Virgin Diamond Syndicate, confirming their appointment as a local authorized dealer in Virgin Diamonds.

"Virgin Diamonds," said Mr. Mather, upon being interviewed by a representative of this paper, "are genuine diamonds, which have never before been individually owned or worn, direct from South African mines."

"There has always been a supply of second-hand diamonds on the market, some of them, of course, with none too savory a reputation. Coming through accepted channels, it was impossible to distinguish such stones, although many jewelers have long attempted to handle only diamonds of known history. Since the war, moreover, the supply of such previously owned stones has substantially increased."

"Realizing that the discriminating diamond buyer—unless, of course, he was interested in a rare stone because of its historic background—much preferred to be the first to own and wear the diamond he purchased, I welcomed the opportunity to affiliate my store with the Virgin Diamond Syndicate who, for some years, have specialized exclusively on selected rough, direct from the mines."

"Not only are Virgin Diamonds of the finest quality, in all sizes and in a wide range of distinctive mountings, but their prices are standard all over the world."

In addition, says Mr. Mather, with every Virgin Diamond, the purchaser receives a registered Certificate of Title which guarantees the origin and previous history of the stone.

YANKEES TAKE FOURTH VICTORY IN YACHT RACES

prise, defender of the America's cup seemed to be sailing to her fourth and final victory which would clinch the 1930 international yachting series.

Sir Thomas Lipton's sloop at this stage of the race appeared to be hopelessly outclassed and beaten. Barring an accident to Enterprise which seemed improbable, it was regarded by observers that it was only a question of how badly Shamrock trailed Enterprise at the finish line.

Shamrock Far Behind
Enterprise rounded the marker at the end of the ten-mile windward leg at 1:03.15 p. m. Shamrock was trailing so far she was almost out of sight of the Enterprise.

Just before reaching the ten-mile mark Enterprise ran in toward the shore, Vanderbilt apparently expecting to find a strong eddy of wind off the land and to get the benefit of the tide that sometime runs along the shore at a velocity of three miles and hour.

The breeze continued to freshen to between fifteen and eighteen miles an hour as Enterprise went charging down the second leg, with a bone in her teeth.

Shamrock rounded the ten mile buoy at 1:12.14 p. m.—nine minutes behind Enterprise.

Start At 11:40
Aboard U. S. S. Kane, off Newport, R. I., Sept. 18.—Enterprise, the defender, and Shamrock, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, breezed away from the starting line at 11:30 o'clock this morning in the final race in 1930 for the America's cup.

Enterprise has already won three of the required four contests in seven to retain the trophy.

Betting odds were 3 to 1 that Skipper Harold S. Vanderbilt will again maneuver his sloop to victory over the green hulled Shamrock and clinch the series.

Get Good Start
Shamrock was in the windward berth as the boats went over the starting line but Enterprise, crossing far down the line, was footing faster. The challenger had lost much way in delaying before the start so as not to get over the line before the signal.

It was a matter of dispute as to which sloop got off to the best start. Both boats crossed the line on the starboard tack. But Shamrock, after sailing only about a minute, switched to the port tack which seemed to indicate she did not find herself in a very advantageous position. A moment later, Enterprise followed her to the port tack.

Shamrock in the first twenty minutes opened up a scant leg or perhaps 200 yards on Enterprise. Captain Ernest (Ted) Heard of the challenger drove his sloop through a choppy sea and into a 14-knot breeze which gave him a disadvantage his yacht had encountered at the start.

Tilt Rakishly
Both racers tilted rakishly on the port tack. Shamrock's skipper bore off toward the shore in an attempt to pick up sufficient advantage to enable him later to make a bid for the weak's berth.

Enterprise, meanwhile, was pointed higher and although she was trailing for the time being she was in a strategic spot, barring an unexpected burst of speed on Shamrock's part.

Reid denied that he had anything to do with the robbery, claiming that he was at his home at the hour when it occurred. Members of his family and other witnesses corroborated him. He also had a number of character witnesses who testified that his reputation is good.

When the robbery was staged Blair took the money, $645.79. He claimed that had afterwards divided it with Reid.

One Little Push And Wheel Chair Fund Is Assured

Generous Friends Of The Helpless Almost Put Fund Over In Rush Today

ENTIRE AMOUNT IS SURE BY FRIDAY

Speaking in the language of the football field, the Clarence Fere wheel chair fund, the goal of which was $200, is now on the three yard line, its the fourth down, and the goal must be reached or failure acknowledged.

Since the appeal of last night, forty-two dollars have been received bringing the fund to $197, just three dollars less than the announced goal.

This seems easy and will be easy of accomplishment, for there are more than three generous friends of the helpless, who intend to give a dollar and will give a dollar before the announcement of the close of the fund in Friday evening's paper.

In fact it looks possible that there may be a few dollars over the amount that has been asked. If this is the case, the money not needed in the purchase of the chair, will be turned over to Clarence to add to his happiness in being placed on an assured independent basis, in his effort to make a living by selling newspapers.

Dollar gifts may be left with Jacob F. Rentz at The News office.

The fund stands as follows:

Worst July Storms For Paris In 55 Years

(International News Service)

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The rainfall in Paris for the month of July was the worst that had been seen in fifty-five years, with twenty-two stormy days, whereas twelve usually make a good record. And not only was it very rainy, but very cold, and gave every one of the oldest inhabitants plenty of material for conversation.

A large share of the blame was put upon the Gulf stream, but Henry Memery of the Talence Observatory, in the Gironde, took exception to this popular theory. He believes the winds changed enroute, causing all the bad weather.

"Due to the general atmospheric circulation from East to West, on the Northern Hemisphere," says Monsieur Emery, "depressions formed over the Atlantic take the same general direction as the gulf stream, within the limits of which they form ordinarily. They reach Europe from the west or northwest bringing in winter temperatures higher than in the interior of the Continent and in summer lower temperatures. It is the latter case which has produced the cool, unsettled weather during this summer."

Mr. Memery also explodes the popular opinion that waves of cold or heat in the United States wind up finally in Europe. If these waves did cross, he insists, they would take the surface temperature which is mild in winter and fresh in summer.

The Dominican Fathers first labored on the American shores in the sixteenth century when they preached to the Indians and the Spanish settlers along the southern coast of California, but it was not until 1805 that the first province of the Order was established in this country under the direction of Rev. Dominic Fenwick, a native of Maryland, who opened the first novitiate of the Order at Springfield, Kentucky. The earlier preachers were credited to the Spanish province of the Order.

Father Gillet, a noted preacher throughout his native France was elected master general at the International chapter of the Order of Preachers held in Rome August last year. He served in the chaplain corps of the French Army during the World War.

Bell Trial About Ready For Jury

Tony Bell Accused Of Killing John Donahoe Will Soon Know His Fate

START SUMMING UP OF EVIDENCE

(International News Service)
UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 18.—The fate of Tony Bell, former Mason-town chief of police on trial for the murder of Constable John Donahoe, was expected to be placed in the hands of the jury late today following summing up of evidence by counsel for Bell and the commonwealth.

William Priester, of Uniontown, on the stand late yesterday as a rebuttal witness for the commonwealth declared that he and a girl companion, sitting in a parked automobile near the scene of the slaying, heard eleven shots and that a few minutes later Bell appeared and demanded:

"What are you doing here?" Bell was armed with a blue steel gun, Priester said. He testified he had known Bell for eleven years and was certain of his identity.

Helen Danish, Priester's girl companion, was unable to corroborate the testimony when she admitted that she did not know the defendant.

Denies Charges
Previous to calling Priester to the stand Bell was asked if he had drawn a revolver on two occupants in a car near Twin Oaks on the night of the murder.

Shouting louder than at any time during the trial, Bell declared: "I wasn't there that morning, never was on that road and couldn't take you there if you wanted to go."

Mrs. Florence Bell, wife of the defendant, was also called as a rebuttal witness and testified that the first she heard of the murder was when her brother-in-law, Paul Whyel, policeman, telephoned her about 8:30 a. m., on the morning of the slaying.

More than 100 witnesses have taken the stand during the trial which opened in the Fayette county court on September 1. More than a week was spent in obtaining a jury. Special Prosecutor A. E. Jones summoned 95 witnesses and the defense called 20.

Dr. R. E. Neighbor Speaking To Crowds At Baptist Church

A large audience listened last night to a masterly message on the subject: "Shall We Continue in Sin?" given by Dr. R. E. Neighbor at the First Baptist church. For over an hour he opened the audience in wreat attention as he unfolded the Scriptures, without the use of a single note. The speaker made copious quotations from the Bible relying entirely upon memory saturated with the text of Holy Writ. The sixth chapter of the Epistle to the Romans was the basis of his discourse. He showed that the work of Christ upon the cross not only frees the believer from the guilt and penalty of sin; but that it is also sufficient to deliver him from the power and dominion of sin. Dr. Neighbor demolished the argument of many, that every Christian must sin more or less. He also said that the people who are living a life of victory over sin will not be found boasting of sinlessness. "We are but poor judges, after all, as to what sin really is," asserted the speaker. "God has made provision that we sin not," continued Dr. Neighbor, "but He now-where tells us to inform our fellow men of the fact we have lived so long without sin." "If a man tells me that he has lived for so many years without sin, I want to secure the corroborative testimony of his wife and neighbors before I accept his statement."

The song service was led by John W. Owens who also directed the choir in a well rendered anthem. Mrs. Paul D. Wellar sang a solo selection written by Dr. Neighbor, entitled, "Savior Divine." Prayer was offered by Frank Geiger.

This evening Dr. Neighbor will continue discussing the subject "Shall the Christian Continue in Sin" under the caption, "The Place of Victory."

Police Pistol Practice Gone

Several Years Ago Police Engaged In 'Shoots' In City Hall Cellar

Is the shooting aim of the city police today as good as it was a few years ago? This is the question that can be answered should the police again establish a pistol range in the cellar of city hall which is being cleaned.

Several years ago the police had a range in the cellar and all the police were required to take pistol practice. Some of them turned in very good marks and it went far toward their own protection.

The range was abandoned and the shoots became a thing of the past. It is probable that the police could again use the cellar as a range should they care to.

Gypsy Woman Is Hunted By Police

Pittsburgh Police Seek Gypsy Woman Who Robs Victims Using Mystic Cult Methods

TWO WOMEN ARE ROBBERY VICTIMS

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—Bandits, highwaymen and just ordinary stick-up artists...

Such gentry, Pittsburgh police will tell you, are only a part of the day's work. But when they are confronted with occult mysticism practiced by a bonafide or charlatan disciple of mesmerism who uses gibbering incantations and a fluttering of hands to reduce the victim to helplessness, police work isn't to be envied.

Wherefore Pittsburgh police today were seeking gingerly and with considerable trepidation for a Gypsy fortune teller, feminine gender, and of appearance most attractive, whose modus operandi is to hypnotize her victims and then, while they look on helplessly, to loot their homes at her leisure.

Miss Frances Multa, the second victim in three days, told police the fortune teller knocked on her door yesterday and glibly offered to tell her fortune. Miss Multa, modern and unbelieving, promptly refused.

Puts Woman in Trance

The Gypsy returned a few hours later. When Miss Multa attempted to shut the door in the Gypsy's face, she told police, the olive-skinned young lady went into action.

"She put her hands in front of my face, waved them slowly, muttered some strange incantation in a foreign language—and I slumped to the floor helpless," Miss Multa said. "Then, while I looked on—I was fully aware of what was transpiring, but was unable to move—the woman placed me in a chair and took a wrist watch and diamond ring, some wearing apparel and a small amount of cash."

The loot totalled about $150.

Miss Multa said she did not regain full control of her faculties until three hours after the hypnotist had taken her departure.

Miss Theresa Trangle reported a similar experience and furnished police with a good description of the Gypsy woman who, she said, was about 30 years old, "good looking and modishly dressed."

Motorists Hear "Ten Commandments"

(International News Service)
SAN MATEO, Cal., Sept. 18.—Ten commandments to motorists are being read daily in the court of Police Judge Louis Kinnell.

Whenever a speeder or reckless driver comes before Judge Kinnell, he is asked to read the ten commandments.

They instruct him how to drive and how to observe the rights of others. If they make an impression Judge Kinnell makes the fine light.

PAINTING WORK PROCEEDING FAST

A large part of the library building is now covered with a coat of paint, and in a couple of days the painters will be ready to paint the front porch and entrances. An attractive brown color is being used.

In some places it has been necessary to scrape off the old coat of paint in order that the new will have a good surface.

"Dizzy", "Skinny" And "Jim" Are Now Awaiting Execution

Condemned by the U. S. Cavalry, "Dizzy," a sorrel, "Skinny," a bay, and "Jim," a light bay, are expected to be executed by Troop F.

Last spring Capt. Richard Tallant, army surveying officer who made a visit here decided that the trio could no longer serve the troop. The horses, ages average 25 years. Such old age can no longer serve guardsmen who stunt young horses on the long drill hours, he announced.

"Skinny" is willing, according to troop officers, but his old age limits him to a few maneuvers on the drill field. Yet "Skinny" would make a splendid farm horse. It he is not ordered shot, as so many of the troop's condemned horses he may be sold to some farm where he will probably round out many more years of service.

"Jim" the light bay, is still a good horse. He is one of the best jumpers in the stables. However, his ailment, a chronic founder on his front hoofs caused trouble. Years ago he had been ridden hard. Guardsmen who befriended "Jim" think that he may have tripped or stuck his feet on a hard surface.

"Dizzy" the sorrel is about 25 years of age and regarded past his service years.

The three horses have been with the local troop since August, 1929, when they were brought here from the Mt. Gretna encampment. Last year "Jiggs" one of the finest horses at the local stables was shot because it had broken its right leg while stationed with the other horses in the corral.

Word is now awaited from cavalry officials of the Third Corps Area, in Baltimore, for instructions to execute or sell the three condemned horses.

As the day advanced, police were repeatedly forced to charge into the obstructionist ranks to disperse swarms of mobs hindering election progress. Scores were injured and taken to hospitals. In the latter part of the day, 120 women pickets were under arrest.

TIME SPENT NOW PRESERVING FRUIT WILL BRING REWARD

Not Likely That Pure Cane
Sugar Will Be So Cheap
Again

In view of the fact that pure cane sugar is now at the lowest price it has been in a generation, and since fruit is abundant, the economy of putting up preserves of all kinds is readily apparent. And if the prices of canned goods are increased next winter, as is likely, your savings will be just that much greater.

Pickles and relishes made of cucumbers, tomatoes, cabbage or melon rind are also inexpensive to preserve and of great help in menu planning. Their spicy tart-sweet goodness is a pleasant accompaniment with meat, fish and vegetables.

The practice of stewing fresh fruit for immediate use should not be overlooked. When peaches, pears and apples are cooked and sweetened to taste, there is less danger of digestive disorders. Consider this in relation to children's meals. Most foods are more delicious with pure cane sugar. The Sugar Institute.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Share Plans Of The Home With Child

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.
"PROVOKE NOT your children to wrath," the Good Book tells us. This admonition we are inclined to give less weight to than another: "Children obey your parents." We get more pleasure reading the latter than the former.

Nevertheless, we parents do try to be honest. We want to be aware of our common frailties toward our children and improve ourselves.

Let us look at some of the ways in which we are inclined to annoy our adolescent children. In the September issue of "The Farmer's Wife" (I am impressed by the large number of letters and very intelligent ones, which I get from rural parents), I have written somewhat at length on this subject. To quote a bit:

"Our adolescent children have a sense of self-respect. They also have ideas and opinions which they enjoy expressing as we adults do. They like to share in the council of the family. When plans are made for house-cleaning, for remodeling the home, for buying a new bedroom set, they are keenly interested. They like to join in the planning and feel themselves considered as worthy members of the family. Although their judgments lack the richness of experience they sometimes have ideas far superior to the ideas of adults. Certainly their council always should be given honor and consideration. When they make suggestions which are wild let us never ridicule them; rather let us calmly try to lead them to our point of view."

How impossible to love anyone who makes us feel we don't amount to anything! The first means, therefore, of winning the confidence and comradeship of our adolescent children is to avoid belittling them or anything they cherish. Do or are happily connected with; and to treat them, their interests, ideas and aspirations, their associates and achievements with deserved respect.

I have discovered that my older children often are anxious about my reputation with their friends and that I have at times embarrassed them by being careless concerning small matters of convention and the nice amenities of life. Being by nature pretty obtuse to indirect suggestions I have discovered some such offenses counted by me only upon their bluntly telling me about them at some time after their occurrence. For one to feel and express regret at misbehavior or this sort wins the respect of our children, provided one attempts earnestly to do better in the future.

What would it profit us if we were to gain the whole world and lose the lasting affection and esteem of our children? What would we give in exchange for it?

My last book "dedicated to my three children whom I often have annoyed." Two of them are adolescents. Just now I recall an incident to the point. Mrs. Myers and I were getting ready to attend a banquet. I was unable to find some important buttons for my evening "riggings" and the time for leaving was at hand. As you may guess, I manifested some emotional disturbance. On leaving finally I said to these older children, "I am sorry I was such a nuisance around here this evening. I suppose you will be relieved when we shall have gone."

"I guess we shall," said one. "Never mind, Dad. We expected it," added the other, rather nonchalantly. Although their remarks gave me some emotional relief at the time, reflection upon them did not make me feel altogether proud of myself.

The Way Of The World

by GROVE PATTERSON

A SIGN OF GOOD TIMES.

Well, here is a sure sign of returning prosperity. Concert managers from many parts of the country say advance bookings for musical events show an increase of 20 per cent over last season. Usually concert attendances decline when times are bad. Good times bring crowds.

DON'T HUNT HEALTH

Don't hunt health. It's like happiness; you can't find it by setting out to look for it. Health flourishes when we live normally and don't think too much about ourselves. Says Dr. Robert Hutchison, British authority:

"Fussiness about health increases fears and impairs the serenity which is the basis both of health and of happiness. The old ignorance about the body and stolid resignation to its ills was probably a more healthy attitude, and certainly a happier one, than the modern curiosity and over-anxiety."

"Eat moderately, taking ordinary mixed diet, and don't worry about anything else. Likes and dislikes, however, should be listened to; they are nature's indication of what probably agrees or disagrees."

"I often think it is a pity Moses ever laid down a sanitary code for it has implanted the seeds of hypochondriasis, which has flourished ever since."

Good Luck!

The whole family of Pennsylvania motorists is like every single family in Pennsylvania

in that they all say:

"You'll have good luck with 'STANDARD'"

ACTUALLY it is not "Good Luck." It is the result of the extra merit built into "Standard" products. In "Standard" motor fuels, for instance, there is no sacrifice of all-round performance for a single talking point. In knock-rating, ESSO is in a class by itself, but knock-rating is unimportant unless it is found with quick-starting, lightning pickup and a low end point. "Standard" fuels have all these in the proper balance. For years they have had an end point of 400°—and lower. It is because "Standard" Gasoline and ESSO meet all the requirements of good gasoline better than everybody says: "You'll have good luck with 'Standard'."

"STANDARD" GASOLINE, "STANDARD" MOTOR OIL and ESSO, the Giant Power Fuel, are products of the Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania

Federal Dry Arrests Drop In Pennsylvania

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13.—August arrests for prohibition violations made by federal officers fell from those of July even more sharply in Pennsylvania than in the country as a whole, according to a summary of federal prohibition enforcement activities for last month just made public by the prohibition bureau.

Such arrests in Pennsylvania numbered only 164 during August as compared with 207 for the previous month, a decline of 20 per cent, whereas in the country as a whole they fell only 12 per cent during the month. A total of 92 cases were held by federal commissioners in the State at the start of last month and in the course of the month only one case was placed on the docket through information and indictment.

Fifteen prohibition violation cases were terminated in the Keystone State in August, and of these 10 cases were not prosecuted. The remaining five ended in convictions, three cases on pleas of guilty and two after jury trials. During July, 17 cases had been terminated, five in convictions.

One jail sentence was imposed for disobeying the federal prohibition act in the State last month, as against two jail terms imposed during July. Fines levied in August amounted to $609 as compared with $890 levied the previous month.

Confiscations of automobiles by federal prohibition agents fell off last month from July, but seizures of illicit manufacturing implements and of liquor increased during the month. Seizures in August included 15 automobiles, 113 stills and stilleries, 1,670 beer fermenters, 125,000 gallons of beer, and 5,548 gallons of spirits. During July federal agents operating in the State took 45 automobiles, 101 stills and stilleries, 1,436 beer fermenters, 63,882 gallons of beer, and 2,701 gallons of spirits.

One of the prohibition bureau's most unusual hauls during August was made in western Pennsylvania, where a Barbet two-column still was seized. This was found in an alcohol plant and is the first of its kind ever taken in the third prohibition district. Some of the alcohol seized at this plant proved to be high as 182, according to the prohibition bureau.

Still, if you listen carefully you can tell whether it's a motorcycle or an airplane or Floyd Gibbons.

Ellwood Trains For Union High

Union High Of New Castle Accepts Opening Day Game In Ellwood
September 27

COACH INGLE IS WELL PLEASSED

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—Ellwood City high school's football schedule for the 1930 season is now completed as Union high has been carded for September 27. This will give the Union eleven a chance to step out of their class but will do their best to overpower the Tubers. Union high has ten veterans left from last year's team and is all set for the coming season. Coach Boyd is very much pleased with the defensive work but feels that the offensive can be improved and is working on that point.

The Boyd machine has one advantage over the blue and white as they start on their grid season this Saturday and Ellwood will not start until the 27th. Union high draws the '30 curtain up when the clash with Zelenople in the opening fray. This game will take place at the home of the Butler county aggregation.

With a little more than a week until the first battle Coach Ingle and his two assistants, Lloyd and Ralston, are working at a rapid pace in rounding the 1930 machine into shape.

Up until yesterday it was feared that a team would not be scheduled for the 27th but tentative plans were under way for a big Alumni and E. C. H. S. game. These plans of course will not function as Union high has been carded for the date. Many alumni members were hopeful that they would be able to don the togs against the blue and white.

Arguments In Substitution Case To Open

Arguments To Show Why Action Against Three Cannot Be Taken Set For Tomorrow

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Sept. 18.—Argument to show cause why the government cannot give immediate trial to Attorney Samuel Rossiter, Joseph Donovan and three other men under federal indictment in the "prisoner substitution" case, will be heard in the United States district court here tomorrow.

Federal Judge Nelson McVicar late yesterday granted a rule on the government after attorneys for Rossiter had petitioned for immediate trial, papers in the case were made returnable today and tomorrow was set for argument.

In the petition Rossiter claims the government has had sufficient time to prepare its case against him and his co-defendants. The attorney further claimed that the delay was injuring his work as an attorney.

Rossiter is one of five men charged with substituting James Patrone for Stanley Wells, reputed Canadian bootlegger, when the latter was to be tried on a charge of rum-running. The fifth man indicted in the case was Lester Beals.

RESUMES TOUR OF COUNTIES TODAY

(International News Service)
DUBOIS, Pa., Sept. 18.—Continuing his tour of every county in Pennsylvania, former Governor Gifford Pinchot, Republican gubernatorial candidate, today was to conclude his visit in Clearfield county with address at Clearfield and visit Philipsburg, Bellefonte and State College in Centre county.

More than 5,000 persons jammed Reitz corner here last night to hear the "tall forester" explain his views on government. Previous to coming here Pinchot talked in Penfield at the opening of the DuBois-St. Mary's highway, and in Tionesta, Clarion, Brookville and Punxsutawney.

Speaks About Yoke.
Aside from the routine explanations of his platform—including his views of the prohibition question and public service commission—Pinchot's address here was featured by only one incident.

Seeing an old-fashioned ox-yoke lying near the scene of the festivities the G. O. P. candidate remarked:

"You all see this yoke. It is a symbol to you. If you don't want the yoke of the Philadelphia gang around the state government at Harrisburg for the next four years, you will have to vote for me."

Spontaneous applause greeted Pinchot's promise to abolish the coal and iron police of the state. He said that the governor must sign the commissions of the coal and iron police and that he would sign no such commissions.

On the stand with Pinchot here last night were Republican County Chairman M. M. Overly of Clearfield; Fred Osborn, DuBois city chairman; Harold Smith, Pinchot's county chairman; Mayor J. I. Pollum of DuBois and Congressman J. M. Chase of Clearfield.

"I heard so much about Konjola that I decided to take another chance, this time with Konjola. The results were certainly a big surprise to me. I continued the treatment until I got better and better. Now I can eat everything, and I am in excellent health. Konjola proved priceless to me." Konjola is not a "cure-all"—there is no such thing. Many 'Newcastles' Buy 'Coals' Of U. S.

American Merchants Sell Products To Countries That Produce Same

Perfumes And Raisins To France; Quinine To Peru; Rice To Japan

American producers have exploded one of the best geographic metaphors. They now make millions annually by "carrying coals to Newcastle." Many "coals" in fact, to many "Newcastles". "American merchants are selling all sorts of products to countries for which those same products are famous," says a bulletin from the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the National Geographic Society.

Apples to Normandy. "Apple blossom time in Normandy is no hindrance to the sale of thousands of boxes of American apples in France. The United States also sells perfumes and raisins to France, the home of flower farms and vineyards; hops and sausage to Germany, home of beer and frankfurters; and fertilizer to Chile, the world's chief source of natural nitrates. "Peru is the original home of quinine. Yet quinine leads the list of American medicinals worth $400,000 imported into Peru annually from the United States, a country in which cinchona trees do not grow. "In the Dominican Republic and the British West Indies flourish the "chocolate" trees that supply nearly 100,000,000 pounds of cacao to the United States annually. To each the United States sells 9,000 pounds of chocolate every year, perhaps with the same chocolate ingredient we bought from them. To Cuba, "Sugar Bowl of the Antilles," American merchants send annually more than a million and a half pounds of confectionery.

Cheewing Gum To Chile-land. "Carrying coals to Newcastle" and selling them, too! Chile comes from Mexico, nearly 10,000,000 pounds per year. And as soon as American factories can mix it, and flavor it, and roll it, and wrap it, they send 275,000 pounds back as chewing gum to Mexico to be sold for about $150,000. "United States exporters sell china-ware to China; prepared milk to the dairy land of Holland; rubber goods in the home of rubber, British Malaya; flour in Canada; silk hosiery and rice in Japan; soap to the Philippines, the chief source of copra for soap-making; and binding twine to Mexico, the home of sisal from which binding twine is made.

"Jute has been raised successfully only in India. The United States buys millions of yards of it to sack potatoes and wrap cotton bales. Out of the jute which America bought one recent year, it resold 169,000 pounds of gunny sacks to India.

How Synthetics Complete. "Sometimes it is a synthetic coal tar product, which competes with some local trade 'Newcastle.' Thymol is an important dentifrice constituent. It was extracted from the ajowan tree of India until chemists began to make it in laboratories. Now the United States markets dentifrices with synthetic thymol in India, the home of natural thymol.

"Bulgaria, famous for its beans, becomes a 'Newcastle' type of trade triangle. Frugal, bean-growing peasants buy hard, white beans from the United States and sell their own superior quality beans to other European nations for a higher price.

"During the English coal strike the United States shipped 10,000,000 tons of coal to England and some of it actually went to Newcastle, the Scranton of Britain."

Prosperity On Way With Bill Payment, Credit Bureau Says

Exchange Releases Statement Of Situation By National Association

Buying freely and paying bills promptly is the way to better times, according to the National Retail Credit Association of which the New Castle Credit Exchange is a member. A statement of the national body was released today by the local exchange today.

Money in circulation, the national credit association says, is the best known prosperity stimulant. Regarding prompt payments of bills and the resulting good effect, the National Retail Credit association says:

"Leaders of the nation are agreed that unstinted buying and prompt payment of bills would quickly restore national prosperity. "Increased buying creates immediate demand for raw materials and manufactured products. Increased employment quickly follows. "Paying retail bills promptly keeps money in circulation, enabling merchants, manufacturers and workers, each in turn, to pay his bills promptly. Everybody benefits."

Hoover Heights Continues Services

Meetings Being Held Nightly By Rev. H. S. Miller In Tabernacle

An attentive and interested audience listened last evening to the Rev. H. S. Miller as he brought the message at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle, Morris street. Rev. Charles A. Davis was present, offering prayer Mrs. Ada Anderson and Mrs. Amy Scripture sang "His Way With Thee." In speaking on the subject "Prayer for Power," Rev. Miller based his remarks on the third chapter of Ephesians. In part the teacher said God has provided a savior to save and a keeper to keep. "I you do not receive the Holy Ghost, don't blame God that you are not kept. The main trouble with Christians today is that we do not know what we are. We should study our Bibles to know that we may be what God would have us. The special stewardship of the Christian is to make Christ known to others. Ministers of the Gospel are created by God, not made by man or choice. "This evening Rev. Miller will speak on "The Worker's Touchstone."

Scott Guilty Of Possessing Liquor

William B. Scott, tried before Judge Chambers on a charge of possessing liquor was found guilty as indicted. It was claimed that Scott had a basket full of bottles, which he had set down in the vicinity of Butler avenue, when he was arrested. He denied ownership of the liquor.

55 AUTOS IN SCOTLAND

Used cars are reported to be selling for as low as $5 in Scotland. One owner said that his machine of ancient vintage, for which he paid that amount, could do 40 miles an hour, seemed to be free from vice, and was "by no means a bad bargain."

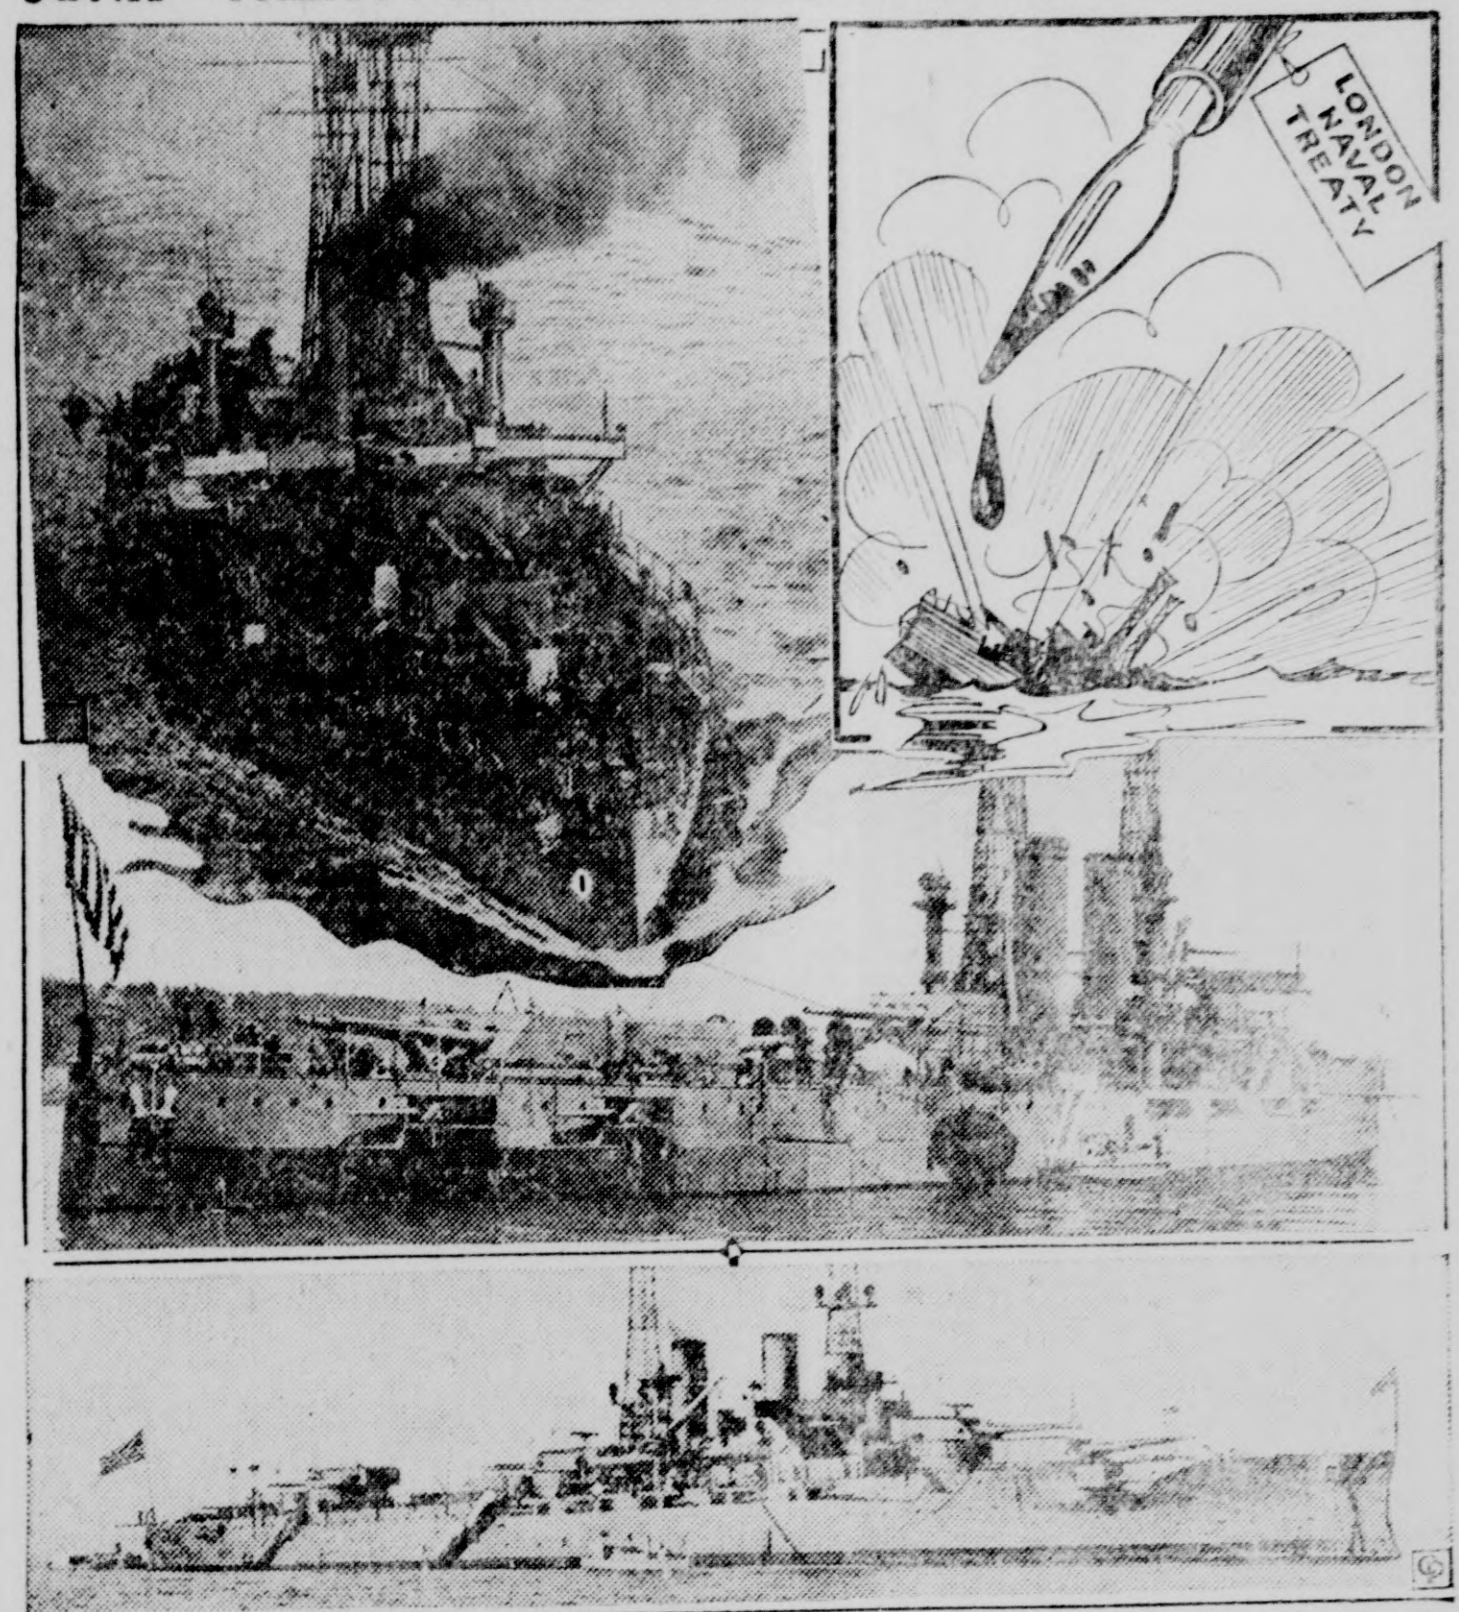

EASY FOR PILGRIMS

Early Indians were not really the savages they were called in Europe. The Pilgrim Fathers were lucky when they landed at Plymouth to find land that had already been cleared by the Indians for the raising of corn.—The Country Home.

AGED IN THE MAKING

"Why," catechized a Californian of the San Diego Union, "are all appointments to the supreme bench such elderly men?" "They aren't," corrected the editor, "they just got that way waiting for the senate to get through criticizing."—The Pathfinder.

JUNK—TREATY MAKES THREE OF UNCLE SAM'S SHIPS

Under the terms of the London naval treaty, Uncle Sam either must sink or scrap these three battleships, the Utah, top; Florida, center, and Wyoming, below. It is possible that the Wyoming, present flagship of the scouting fleet on the Atlantic coast may be converted into a training ship. Its place as flagship will be taken by the U. S. S. Arkansas. Naval officials estimate that the retirement of these three ships will mean a yearly saving of $4,000,000. It is planned to send the Utah and the Florida to sea radio-controlled, without crews, then send planes in search of them, as in real warfare, and sink the warships from the air.

Six Save Selves When Yacht Burns

Palatial Yacht Owned By John Dawson Of Philadelphia, Destroyed By Fire

(International News Service)
EASTON, Md., Sept. 18.—Six Philadelphia and Easton sportsmen were forced to swim ashore when the 100-foot palatial yacht of John Dawson, wealthy Philadelphia banker, burned to the water's edge at the mouth of the Choptank river near here today.

The blaze starting from the explosion of a gasoline stove spread throughout the $40,000 vessel despite the frantic efforts of the six men aboard. Finally realizing the boat was doomed the men plunged into the water and swam 75 yards to the shore.

Besides Dawson the other occupants of the boat included Dr. B. J. Delaney, of Easton, and George Youngblood, of Philadelphia. The group were fishing just beyond the mouth of the river.

Among some statements prohibition is a principle. Among others it is something to talk about in avoidance of more difficult topics.—The Washington Star.

Investment In Pearls Brought Rich Returns

Some years ago a woman received as one of her Christmas presents a pearl necklace from her husband. Not being in opulent circumstances he was unable to spend more than $25 for them but their lustre pleased his wife however and for some years she wore them many, many times until recently the string broke and she carried them to the same jeweler to be restringed.

She had hardly reached her home when she received a telephone call from the senior partner of the firm who asked her to call the next morning to her amazement she found that what she thought were excellent imitations were the real thing and valued at about $5,000. They had been sold by an inexperienced salesman who appeared.

Leaving her jewels she returned home and several days later was the recipient of a letter from the jeweler containing a check for $1,000 and a box containing another string of pearls worth three or four times as much as the original price paid for the first necklace.—Springfield Union.

Jewish People Will Observe Rosh Hashanah

Announce Services Will Begin
Here On Monday, September 22

Jewish people all over the world will celebrate their New Year, called in Hebrew "Rosh Hashanah" on Tuesday, September 23. According to the Bible, this holiday is to be observed but one day. The Jewish calendar designates this year as 3691. In the religious life of Israel, New Year's day ranks in sacredness and solemnity next to the Day of Atonement. Its message to the world at large as well as to the Jewish people, can best be understood when this holiday is considered in the light of its historical development.

The origin of this holiday may be traced back to the days when Israel indulged in agriculture in Palestine. All Semitic peoples began to count their agricultural year with the first month of autumn. According to the Bible, there was to be a holy convocation of the people on this day, and trumpets were to be sounded, and special sacrifices were to be offered at the Temple of Jerusalem. The particular meaning and purpose of this holiday are not set forth explicitly, but from ancient times on, no doubt, it was regarded as the New Year of the agricultural cycle by the Jewish people.

With the dispersion of Israel throughout the world and the destruction of the temple, the agricultural background of this festival disappeared almost entirely, and it assumed a higher religious and spiritual aspect. The rabbis of old clothed New Year's Day with new meaning and significance. They regarded this day as the beginning of the creation of the world and set it aside as the day of judgment—the day upon which the Creator of heaven and earth judges every creature of the world. This idea fashioned this festival into a most solemn occasion when man is to strive for a new life of amendment and reconciliation with his fellowman and God. This finally gave rise to the idea that New Year's Day is a day of self-searching and self-criticism which runs through almost every prayer of the Union Prayer Book.

Even today the observance of this festival is still distinguished by the blowing of the ram's horn—the Shofar. The symbolic act of sounding the Shofar is intended to stir the heart of man and awaken him to the essential spiritual aspects of the day.

Services in New Castle will begin Monday, September 22, at sunset in the Cathedral with Rabbi Samuel I. Kakuto of the Beth Shalom congregation in charge, and continue until sunset on Wednesday.

Unique Titles On Roster Names Of Local Societies

Nomenclatures of some of New Castle women's clubs would dazzle scholars who dabble in the classics. With strange names suggestive of distant lands and climes, of treasure that is still hidden and titles of mystic shrines as names for their circles, it is no wonder that luncheon clubs thrive in the city in such numbers.

A weekly calendar published in The News produces names that are jewels of the tongue-twister's art. Take for instance the Wimodausis, named on the calendar as a Wednesday club, Jollikousins Club is next in order for quaintness, and Swastika Club is easily third. The Gowanda Club meets on Monday and the Ewilda Club on Wednesday.

Of course, there is still the Semper Fidelis and the Unusual Club. The run of circles includes a list that is both quaint and amusing. The "initial" clubs contain the letters of the alphabet. The E. N. C., L. A. B., T. Y. C., G. W. C., G. T. E., F. O., G. A. T., and many more.

New Castle Opens 1930 Grid Season Friday

BY RUEF GOLDBERG

RED AND BLACK ELEVEN IS READY FOR CORAOPOLIS

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh Sends Gridders Through Light Workout Wednesday Afternoon

Locals Feel Confident Of Starting Season With Win Tomorrow Night

Less than forty-eight hours remain until two well trained gridiron teams will meet each other, when New Castle High School eleven opens the 1930 football season by meeting Coraopolis High on Friday night at Taggart Field at 8:00 o'clock "under those glaring floodlights." Both teams concluded a month's training in preparation for the inaugural game of the season today.

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh, following a light workout of gridders at Taggart Field on Wednesday afternoon announced that the final rehearsal in preparation will be held either this afternoon or this evening. On Wednesday the local eleven was given a light workout.

The usual calisthenics, on the menu daily, opened the afternoon. Dummy practice was the next and final thing of the afternoon. This was long. One thing that the coach made the boys drill on extensively was forward passing.

The second team first tried its luck to see how many passes they could complete and then the varsity eleven attempted to outwit the second team with many passes. From the rehearsal Wednesday it appeared that by another season John and Nick Uram should be a great passing combination. The two brothers managed to complete many passes.

Andy Lasky who will be seen at one end of the halfback posts was the recipient of many forward passes which were good. Here is one lad that may surprise the local fans despite the fact that this is his first year of real football. The linemen on the first team looked good and managed to figure in many passes which were broken up by them.

Either this afternoon or this evening the gridders will go through their final workout before the game. Will Average 165

The schoolboy eleven which will represent the local school averages 165 pounds. The line which has on it one 200 pounder and one griddier who topples close to 200 averages 170 pounds. The backfield is a little lighter. The four ball carriers, McAuley, Lasky, Thomas, and Fabian, average close to 160 pounds.

With close to three weeks of training having been completed in preparation for the opening tilt, the boys are in good shape for Friday night.

Coraopolis Has Veterans
Coraopolis High last season came through victorious in four games, tied two, and lost two. Among the victories was that over the strong McKees Rocks team which was among the leading contenders for the W. P. I. A. L. crown until defeated by Coraopolis High. The other teams who were defeated by Coraopolis were Bellevue, Sewickley, and McDonald.

The visitors come here with an eleven has on it six veterans from last season and a number of experienced scrubs. Statistics show that Coraopolis expects to have the strongest team in the history of the school this year.

Coach Tommy Clark, former Muskingham College man and all conference end of past years is pleased with the showing his boys have made in the practices. Coach Clark stated today that he is hoping that Coraopolis High defeats New Castle so as to even up for that defeat in basketball which the locals handed them the year New Castle won the W. P. I. A. L. trophy.

The visitors will arrive here by bus about 6:30 o'clock Friday. Principal P. J. Cassler announced today that the school will be well represented by fans. At least 300 students planning to come.

To Have Public Address System
Fans who attend the game tomorrow night will be introduced to another unusual thing. Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner stated today that workmen are busy engaged putting up a public address system by which the fans will know who completes a play, or make a touchdown, the score, downs, etc., via loud speakers which will be situated in different sections of the field.

Six loud speakers are being placed on the field. This is something new and will eliminate the scoreboard. This will be the first two games and if it proves satisfactory will be used at every athletic event held at Taggart Field.

Another new thing will be noted Friday night. Red flags will be placed at the end of the two goal lines so that the fans know precisely how close the teams are from the goal.

Faculty Manager Gardner also stated today that fans who have ordered tickets for the stadium should get them at the Sporting Goods Store.

Wilson Hits Two More Home Runs
Hack Wilson helps Cubs down Giants—Cardinals take Dodgers again

ANDY HIGH IS HERO OF GAME
By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Andy High did it again. With his little bat yesterday, socking a double that broke a 3-3 tie, St. Louis tossing Brooklyn 5 to 3.

Hack Wilson hit homers Nos. 51 and 52 as the Cubs downed the Giants 5 to 2. He is now six four-basers ahead of the great man, Ruth, and further by chasing in four runs yesterday. Hack smashed the major league record of 175 runs driven in.

Old Urban Faber silenced the Athletics with six hits and the White Sox pocketed it, 14 to 2. Cissel's great catch in the eighth kept Faber out of hot water.

Walter Berger hit a homer in the opener and Boston slammed the Cincy Reds 6 to 3 and then Berger clicked two homers in the finale but his teammates were not so good and the Reds triumphed, 6 to 4.

Averill Hits Four
Earl Averill, Indian outfielder, tied the modern major league mark with three consecutive homers as Cleveland nipped Washington, 13 to 7. The Senators came back in the night cap with Liska relieving Brown and won, 6 to 4.

Babe Ruth swung viciously and fanned with the tying run on third base, letting the Browns defeat the Yanks 9 to 8.

Four Philly pitchers could not stop the Pirates, who pushed over 12 runs in two innings and sank Philadelphia 12 to 5.

Each team garnered 15 hits but Detroit bunched theirs and won over the Ruddy Sox of Boston, 9 to 17.

Must Respect Ropes At Lehigh Field
Wesley Davy, business manager of the Lehigh mushball team asked President Walther today to make an appeal for respect at the Lehigh field for the series game to be played Saturday between the Lockleys and Wampum.

It seems that the Lehigh boys have been kind enough to rope off the playing field, and that the ropes have been torn down and also the posts taken that hold the ropes. There is no excuse for the fans crowding out on the field, that is why the field has been roped off. The rope will be back in place Saturday and the fans are asked to not disrespect the courtesy of the Lehigh Company management.

Americans Hope To Make It Four Victories Today

American Yacht Enterprise Can Win International Series By Victory Today

SHAMROCK FIGHTS WITH BACK TO WALL

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Writer

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 18.—Like a boxer who has been outpointed for two rounds and floored outright in the third, Shamrock V was coming up for the fourth and probably the final round today, groggy but still game. She may have been just a little weary about the eve and after her failure to finish the course yesterday, just a little uncertain of her "footing," so to speak, but if the American defender, Enterprise, was to administer the knockout punch, the challenger at least meant to take it full on the bow, with colors flying and the spray boiling merrily under her keel.

Sea Is Rough
And boil it will, according to the forecast, which indicated that something of a blow was due and that, in consequence, the sea would stand erect and fall upon everybody like an old friend. The result might be favorable to Shamrock's cause, since she was making her first real play for a victory since the start of the series in yesterday's heavy going when her main sail halcyons parted and the race, as such, promptly ceased to be.

However, not too much importance was attached to the circumstance for obvious reasons it seemed to be pretty well established now that Shamrock's equipment, in comparison with that of Enterprise, is somewhat inferior. Sir Thomas simply has been outgated, as it were, by the spendthrift Americans. The thing apparently has ceased to be a yacht race and has become a luxury-purchasing contest.

Americans Superior
Anyhow, they now admit, even Sir Thomas' organization, strictly in confidence—that American has the better yacht and the better skipper and that, as soon as the required proof can be furnished by a fourth Enterprise victory, the better it will be for all concerned. What the Lipton organization does not admit is that it feels America has taken the affair outside the pale of sport with its multi-million dollar budgets for its defenders. The Lipton people may not be exactly indignant over the situation but, according to backstairs—or to be nautical, akt companionway—gossip, neither are they particularly gratified.

The result is that they wish to get on with this challenging business with all haste and having completed the transaction, to challenge not again for a great many years and perhaps never at all. Their wish to have matter expedited doubtless will be gratified today. The yachts were to return to the triangular course of ten miles to windward, ten miles to leeward and ten more on the reach and, since it was over such a course that Enterprise won by 1-4 miles on Monday, it may reasonably be expected to do so today.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Young Sailor proved easy for Baby Joe Gans at Pittsburgh last night.

In the semi-final Marty Gold took the decision from Black Bill in 10 rounds. It was a split verdict.

While these battles were under way Primo Carnera was showing his stuff in Chicago and Jake Gross his opponent, passed out in the fourth chapter.

Chris Cagle, famous star of the army, has assumed the coaching job at Mississippi A and M college.

Bobby Jones took a practice trip around the Merion club at Philadelphia and covered the course in 73, three strokes above par.

Tom Heeney and Knockout Christner may meet in Pittsburgh, October 12.

Facts About Opening Game

Teams—New Castle High and Coraopolis.
When—Friday night, September 19.
Time—8:00 o'clock, (E. S. T.)
Where—Taggart Field.

According to reports from Coraopolis High, the visiting team is taking a delegation of 300 students and a number of towns people. This shows how well the visitors will be represented. The writer ventures to say and hopes that the local fans will turn out 100 per cent.

Fandom will be treated to some new features on Friday night at Taggart Field. The public address system which is now being used only in colleges will be inaugurated here. Ralph H. Gardner, faculty manager, stated that six loud speakers, which will broadcast the outcome of every play concerning the players, team, etc., are being erected in different sections of the field.

The other thing is the new four red flags which are being placed at the end of the two goal lines. These flags will give the fans an idea of how close a team is from the line where before it was a hard problem to judge how far a team was from scoring.

Northwestern To Have Fine Team

Eleven Veterans Report To Coach At Northwestern—Outlook Is Good

HANK BRUDER TO RETURN TO GAME

By LEO FISCHER
International News Service Sports Writer
EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 18.—If we were following the method of rating popular with movie critics, we'd put a string of at least five stars in front of Northwestern University's football hopes.

At least one experienced man is available for every position on the team. Replacements are necessary only for Russ Berghien, fullback; Henry Anderson, guard, and Mickey Erickson, center, the sole regulars among the nine men lost by graduation, their successors are already in sight.

Berghien's loss will be made up by the return of Hank Bruder, star back, who is wearing no. 13 this season to ward off the injury junk that has trailed him during the past two years. Bruder has the makings of an all-American.

Bruder will play one halfback, with the other being selected probably from a trio of lettermen. They are Al Moore, Sid Burnstein, and Bill Griffin.

Fullback will most likely be "Pugh" Rentner of Joliet, Ill., a 190-pound sophomore. Lee Hanley, who did an excellent job of quarterback last year, will have first call again for the post.

Gridiron Gossip

The first important college football game in this district comes on Friday night at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, when Coach Elmer Layden sends his Duquesne University crew against the husky huskies from West Virginia University. It is a night game. The Dukes defeated the Mountaineers last year at Morgantown, 7 to 6. Coach Ira Rodders in anxious to even the score with the Dukes and Friday's game should be good for that very reason.

New Castle fans will watch with interest the work of the Dukes this year as several former New Castle High stars are enrolled with the Layden coached team, they are as follows: DeCarbo, Thomas, and Robert Millison. On the Duquesne Freshman team is found Bennie Ciccone, and from all reports the "Red-Head" is going to play center on the freshman team. This is the first year that the Dukes have had a football team for the freshmen. Buff Donnelly is the coach.

The Geneva College football squad is being driven through a series of hard workouts this week. Friday night at Reeves Field, the lid will be lifted on the 1930 schedule when the strong St. Vincent's team appears to meet the Harpster coached eleven. It will be the first intercollegiate tilt in the valley under the flood lights and for that reason a jammed stadium was to be expected when they emerged from their quarters. Geneva's plays this year are being built around Johnny Knapic, star halfback.

Over in the Carnegie Tech camp Tony Ostrosky, the former star end of the New Castle team is giving Ted Rosenweig, Flannagan and Jacques Croissant a tough battle for an end berth. Ostrosky is light, but he is a deadly tackler and has a lot of fight. Tech is going to have a good team this year is the opinion of those who have watched the gridders in their workouts.

The grid fans of this section are watching the Pitt reports with interest. Paul Reider and Paul Cuba, two former New Castle High stars are out for the varsity at Pitt, and Coach Jack Sutherland has let it be known that he is mighty sweet on both boys, which means in the parlance of the

Chicago Police Start Hunt For Two Jockeys—Kidnapping Is Feared

(International News Service)
LINCOLN FIELD, Ill., Sept. 18.—Chicago district sporting circles were puzzled today by the mysterious disappearance of jockeys Jimmy Marcum and Paul Neal, two star riders, who failed to show up for their regular engagements at Lincoln Field track Wednesday morning. A kidnapping is feared by authorities.

County highway and Chicago Heights police have joined in the hunt for the 17-year-old youths at the request of their employers and friends. When last seen they were riding in Neal's new automobile. One theory held by authorities is that they were kidnapped and are being held for ransom by the gang which has been operating at Peoria and East St. Louis, Ill.

No demands for ransom have as yet been made to relatives or employers of the boys.

Mushball League Banquet Planned

Plans are under way for the first annual banquet of the New Castle Mushball League. It is hoped that the banquet can be held within the next two weeks. The managers of the various teams are asked to communicate with President Charles P. Walther, at the News office, or with "Dutch" Laurel at the First National Bank in regard to how many of their team members they can secure for the banquet. The cost is going to be small. The trophy cup will be presented to the champions at the banquet.

MIDGETS TO PLAY.
The St. Vits Midgets will play their first football game of the year at the B. & O. field on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. It was announced today. Billy Bullano is coach of the team.

Beede Eases Up On Titan Squad

With Registration Taking Up Time, Gridders Get Brief Respite

TO START PICKING VARSITY ELEVEN

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 18.—Coach "Dike" Beede of the Westminster College football team sent his Titan squad through only one practice drill on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons due to the fact that most of the players were busy with details of registration during the morning.

In addition to these men Patterson, halfback; Banks, halfback; Baird, guard; Knabe, end; Bloker, halfback; and Patterson, end, have all been showing up well in drills and have been used on either the "A" or "B" teams.

From the 28 men mentioned above, Beede will in all probability select the team which will face Edinboro State Teachers' College in the opening game here. The 28 players include six ends, five tackles, six guards one center, one quarterback, one fullback, and eight halfbacks to make up the strongest team and set of reserves Westminster has seen in many a day.

With the start of college classes Friday morning, Beede will call his practice sessions for 3 o'clock each afternoon. Hence the team will get but six days of drills before the opening contest. Word from the Erie section would indicate that Edinboro, who plays Allegheny and number of other colleges in the section in addition to Westminster, will have a veteran team.

Lockleys-Wampum Are Deadlocked

Game For Mubball Championship Ends In Tie At 1-1 Wednesday Night

The Lockleys and Wampum must wait until Saturday afternoon at three o'clock to decide the New Castle mubball league title. The teams battled to a 1-1 deadlock last night at Lehigh field in a seven-inning game which sure had all the earmarks of a championship tilt.

It was a real pitching battle between Rodgers of the Lockleys and Patterson of the Wampum team. The Wampum boys had but two hits off Rodgers, while Patterson was found for three hits by the Lockleys, with S. Lockley supplying the feature of the game by hitting a home run. Both clubs battled hard to take the game, but first fielding kept the runs down.

Guide Book Catches Charm Of Old Boston

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Making a guide book interesting is more difficult than dramatizing a telephone directory but Eleanor Early has accomplished it in "And This is Boston" (Houghton, Mifflin company). The charm of old and new Boston is revealed in readable and witty fashion. The authoress is a former Boston newspaper woman.

Vanderbilt, Enterprise Skipper "Gentleman" Sports Enthusiast

By Central Press
NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 18.—Though he is one of America's richest men, sport followers actually know little about Harold Stirling Vanderbilt, engaged these days in giving Sir Thomas Lipton's crew aboard the Shamrock V, challenger for the America's cup, a thorough lesson in seamanship and the art of sailing a great racing yacht.

Vanderbilt, skipper of the Enterprise, the yacht defending the cup, and head of the syndicate which built and financed her, has the faculty which might have made him a great sport star if fate had not made him the scion of an immensely wealthy family. He has the power to concentrate completely on whatever he makes his hobby and nothing but perfection will satisfy him.

In school he was a brilliant student, winning a scholastic medal at the close of his preparatory training and completing a Harvard course in three years. At Harvard he was also student manager of the football team. His school days past and his inheritance ($30,000,000) making it unnecessary to strive for a financial competence, he turned his high-powered energies to the field of "gentleman" sports though he retained an active interest in the railroad business and other commercial enterprises.

Vanderbilt became famous as an expert auction bridge player, a bidding convention being named after him. He is also one of the leading contract bridge enthusiasts.

Gifted with leisure he is a very active man. He once possessed the fastest auto in Newport. His airplane was the best equipped in America. He is deeply interested in yachting, rowing, golf and college baseball. In 1913 he sailed his yacht, the Vagrant, from Maine to Portugal to win the king's cup. He served on a sub-chaser during the war.

Vanderbilt is 46, quiet-spoken, calm bachelor, who smokes a pipe, doesn't go in for fancy yachting togery, likes to wear a slouch hat and is an A-1 yachtsman.

Loughran-Walker Matched For Bout

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—World series fans attending the championship games in Philadelphia will be treated to a bout between Tommy Loughran, undefeated retired light heavyweight champion of the world, and Mickey Walker, the world's middleweight champion, it was announced here today by promoters Taylor and Gunniss.

The bout has been signed for October 1, the night preceding the first game of the series at the Phillies ball park. It will be over the ten round distance and will mark the second meeting between the two Irishmen.

Loughran won their previous melee which took place in Chicago, on March 25, of last year.

FROM TEE TO GREEN

By ROY GROVE
Central Press Golf Writer

If you were driving a nail with a hammer you would not think of holding a stiff wrist. The same theory applies to snapping your wrist into a golf ball.

Regardless of how great the arc you would use the same wrist action, put to play with a timely punch.

In Illustration 1 you have the wrist action. Note where the wrists are held in position to the head and that the left shoulder is coming under the chin.

In Illustration 2, you have the common fault. The head is swayed over to the left, it has not been held in position, and both the arms are kinked, with the wrists below the level of the head.

The higher you are able to get your hands over your head the greater the arc and the harder the punch with the wrists.

If you were hitting a nail you increase that arc, but in no sense do you try to overswing in putting more power into the stroke.

This stroke is the same as in golf, with the exception of hitting against the left side instead of hitting in a forward motion. Do not concentrate on the height of the backswing or the snap of the wrists in getting accustomed to this method of power. See that your head is held stationary and that you are coming around on the shot with your body. Under no circumstances try to force the action, but try to smooth it out in one long sweep.

At the end of the second international yacht race the Enterprise was so far ahead the crew could barely discern the Shamrock V, and couldn't see the Phillies at all.

Announcing STUDEBAKER'S new Dictator Eight lower prices...plus free wheeling MOTORDOM'S biggest surprise in 1930 is Studebaker's introduction of Free Wheeling with positive gear control.

Today's biggest surprise is the unexpected application of Free Wheeling to the one Studebaker Eight that seemed too low-priced to command it.

Free Wheeling, with positive gear control...until now obtainable only in the President and Commander Eights...is today offered in a new Dictator Eight at a new low price!

Now, with greater power and exquisite new beauty, the Dictator Eight is more than ever first of all Eights at its price. And it tops the great records it has piled up for economy of operation with the super-economy of Free Wheeling.

Free Wheeling means the harnessing of momentum and the consequent saving of 12% to 20% in gas and oil consumption. When your engine has "worked" only 8,000 miles it has travelled 10,000 miles. Chassis wear is reduced. Tire life is lengthened.

You can shift from high to second, back and forth, at 40—50 miles an hour and never touch the clutch. Yet, with Free Wheeling, under positive gear control, the braking power of your engine is always available when wanted.

See this new Dictator Eight, shown today for the first time. Drive it. Experience the thrill of Free Wheeling. Studebaker considers this new Eight with Free Wheeling a crowning triumph of its 78 progressive years.

Note these Fine Car Features

Free Wheeling with positive gear control. Seasoned straight eight engine developing 81 horsepower. Nine-bearing crankshaft. Duplex carburetor with carburetor silencer. Dual manifold. Aluminum alloy pistons. Full power muffler. Air cleaner. Lanchester vibration damper. Timken bearings. Duo-Servo improved four-wheel brakes. Adjustable steering column and front seat. Safety steel-core, 3-spoke steering wheel. Double-drop frame. Insulated toe board. Fender lights. Le Modern bumpers. Hydraulic shock absorbers. Fuel pump. Gasoline filter. NEW YORK STOCKS

MARKET TODAY IS DULL AND QUIET

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Stock prices drifted lower in a dull and quiet market today. Yesterday's dullness was duplicated in the first period, stock sales dropping off in volume to 190,000 shares in the first half-hour, and trading was limited to a small number of the speculative favorites.

American Rolling Mills' new decline to the year's lowest price at 47 1/2, down 2 points, paved the way for heavy bearish selling of other Industrials. Vanadium was pushed down to 35 1/2. U. S. Steel lost a point at 168 1/2, and Radio was again under the hammer. Losses of 1 to 2 1/2 points in the second hour were recorded in Westinghouse, Auburn Auto, International Business Machine, American Can and Case.

Weakness of American Rolling Mills was attributed to reports that the company had earned only 90 cents a share in the first half of 1930, with the prospects of a deficit in the last six months.

The bears sowed the whole market deep with selling orders as the forenoon advanced. Fox Film was again under pressure and sold off 1 1/2 at 48.

Radio broke under 39 and Radio Keith declined fractionally to 33 1/4. Atlantic Refining was the weak member of the Oil group and declined to 32 1/4. Agricultural Chemical preferred jumped about 7 points to 41 1/2, while the common last 1 1/2 on publication of the proposed reorganization plan, which greatly favors the preferred stockholders.

The Commodity markets were steady with narrow price changes in grain and cotton. Call money was unchanged at 2 per cent.

In addition to the committee named the candidates on the state ticket, General Martin, as chairman, and Mrs. Sarah M. Martin, vice-chairman, also serve on that body. Although the Republican State Committee has not drafted a party platform for a state election since 1914 the party rules require naming of such a committee.

Those named today were Mrs. Helga M. Schluraff, Erie; Mrs. Sarah M. Gallaher, Edinburg; Mrs. Ida P. Buckman, Lansdowne; Joseph G. Armstrong, Pittsburgh; Simon H. Sell Bedford, and William S. Johnson, Berwick.

Suit In Equity Filed Against Melville Lewis

Death Of Lewis Results In Filing Of Equity Suit To Recover Money

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—A summons in equity was issued by the court of common pleas today against Mary E. Lewis, the United Engineering company, the Consolidated Construction company, the Equitable Casualty and the estate of Melville E. Lewis, deceased, at the request of Thomas J. Egan, attorney for Robert L. Little and Vest F. McClellan of Los Angeles.

Lewis was the defendant in charges of conspiracy and fraud filed by the two Los Angeles men who allege they were defrauded of more than $50,000 by Lewis. The latter was placed on trial before Judge Kim in quarter sessions court here but when trial was resumed yesterday it was discovered that Lewis had been found dead in his garage earlier in the day.

This automatically ended the criminal suit and the equity case was taken today in an effort to secure redress from the deceased's estate for the plaintiffs in the criminal case.

Merger Suit Is Monotonous Today

Await Appearance Of Samuel Mather, Wealthy Cleveland Ore Magnate

(International News Service)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 18.—Trial of the injunction suit against the merger of Youngstown Sheet & Tube company with Bethlehem Steel corporation creaked through monotonously routine testimony during the early hours in common pleas court here today while the anticipated appearance on the witness stand this afternoon of Samuel Mather, Cleveland ore magnate was impatiently awaited.

The situation was like a lull before a storm, since Mather's testimony is expected to climax the efforts of the pro-merger forces to defeat the consolidation of Bethlehem and Sheet & Tube against the attacks of its opponents.

Mather is known to be a proponent of the merger, although he has not been called upon to testify in any of the long litigation instigated by Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier.

You're the JUDGE

The Decision

The court held for the older man. The judges reasoned thus: Words, even those which do no more than impute a criminal offense, are actionable, per se. Words which impute that the person to whom they are applied has made himself liable to a fine are not actionable. But when they imply that one has done something for which he can be put into jail, then they are slanderous, indeed.

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—"Just a crick in my shoulder," Bobby Jones asserted today in denying reports that he was suffering from appendicitis. Jones explained he played in a shower during an exhibition match at Washington last Sunday and apparently caught cold in his shoulder. Upon his arrival here yesterday he visited an osteopath who massaged the ailing part. Today he again visited the physician before going to the Merion club links to resume his practice rounds in preparation for the U. S. Amateur Golf championship next week.

MOUNT JACKSON RESIDENT GIVES PROHIBITION VIEWS

Editor News:
Mt. Jackson, Pa.
September 16.

As this week is to be observed as Constitution Week it might be a good time to consider the 18th amendment and what it means to us as citizens of Pennsylvania.

In the humble opinion of the writer nine out of ten persons who advocate the repeal of the 18th amendment do so because they want to see the old saloon reinstated and established firmly as a permanent American institution.

The repeal of the 18th amendment would simply mean the return of the open saloon. It could not mean anything else. Up to date no one has undertaken to explain how the sale of liquor would be regulated or controlled. When Billy Sunday was in your city a few years ago the writer heard him say that you might as well try to regulate the powder mill in hell as to try to regulate the liquor traffic. And Billy knows whereof he speaks.

The wets tell us that if we had open saloons that men would not want to drink as much as they do now. Let us follow out that kind of reasoning and see where it will lead. Suppose a farmer would find that his hogs had found a hole in the fence and were doing great damage in the cornfield. Would he remove the fence and allow them to run off into the fields? Not by a large majority. He would first repair the fence between the hog lot and the cornfield.

The writer can remember that 50 years ago when he lived in Ohio and the city of Cleveland was a small place compared to what it is today, that it was estimated that there were 1,500 speakeasies in that city. And I have no doubt that the same was true of all other cities all over the United States.

In his boyhood days the home of the writer was near to the city of Youngstown, not much of a city, then however. There were less than 10,000 inhabitants and there were lots of speakeasies in the place. And yet we are told every day that we had no bootleggers and no speakeasies before the days of prohibition.

I should have said that the saloon keepers in Cleveland asked the city council and the mayor to eliminate the speakeasies because they were interfering with their business. One thing is very plain to every newspaper reader. That is that many of the metropolitan daily newspapers are very busy in distorting the facts in building the figures and constantly misrepresenting the real situation in regard to the 18th amendment.

One of the shining lights in this class of journalists is Arthur Brisbane. His business is to write short editorials to kick and slam the 18th amendment and the Volstead act, and to sneer at everything that is decent. However, the American people are taking his measure and he will pass out into the class of "has-beens" and "also rans."

No doubt before the November election we will hear a great deal about personal liberty. As defined by a wet, personal liberty means to do as you please without any regard for other people and their rights to start a saloon within 40 feet of a school or church and provide a place where oppressed, abused and down-trodden workingmen could spend his evenings, squander his hard-earned wages for drink and then get drunk and go home and beat his wife and children with a club.

In the good old days of the saloon (as the wets say) statistics tell that every year there were 3,000 men in the U. S. that beat their wives to death when they drank.

Every banker in this county will tell you that in the days of the open saloon many working men never deposited a dollar in the bank and not many of them owned their own homes, and sometimes were thrown out of their homes for not paying their rent.

Their wives and children were clothed in rags simply because the money was all spent for drink. And yet Nicholas Murray Butler says that the prohibition law is a bad thing (for the income of the Butler owning to the fact that the our Butler owned brewery stock when the 18th amendment was adopted.)

No doubt the readers of The News will all remember the straw vote taken by the Literary Digest last spring. Floyd Gibbons told us it was come in a fair and impartial manner. Let us see how it was done. If there were a rozen preachers in a town no ballots were sent to them or to their wives, but every ex-saloon keeper and every man known to be friendly to the liquor business got a ballot. That is what Floyd Gibbons a fair and impartial ballot.

And then, after it was all over it was announced with a great flourish of trumpets that practically the whole country was wet except a few dry spots in some of the western states. Texas was wet, and a few days after that Senator Sheppard was nominated again for senator by a vote that as almost unanimous, and our own state nominated one of the driest men on earth for governor.

It is very pathetic to hear some of the wets talking about lawlessness and law breaking. Who is doing the law breaking? Anyway in this country, is it the dries or the wets? In the good old days of the saloon (as the wets say) they were not saying much about law breaking, not what you could notice too busily engaged robbing the laboring man of the money that should have gone to buy clothes and food for his wife and children.

This wet and dry contest will be a fight to a finish. Party lines don't count. It is wet or dry. The dries will ask for no quarter and they will give no quarter. Everything will be called by its right name.

Whenever the news comes about some bootlegging being discovered the big city papers start "I told you so" and every little two by four yellow newspaper takes up the cry. When the big dog barks the little dogs yell and the howl goes down the line. "I told you so, I told you so," "the prohibition law cannot be enforced, might as well be repealed." What about some of our other laws? The law says, "Thou shalt not steal." Is there any stealing done these days? When a wet hears of a bank being robbed, why don't he say "I told you so, you cannot enforce the law against stealing. Might as well let them take what they want." And when they hear about another murder why don't they say that again, "I told you so, you might as well repeal that law and let school boys carry guns to school and shoot at teachers on the playground."

Oh! Consistency, Consistency. I'm afraid thou art not an anti-prohibition jewel.

S. A. COWDEN.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

After keeping an eagle eye peeled for any overt actions at the close of straw hat season this column is forced to report that the season closed without a shot being fired or a throat slit. Not a hat broken insofar as the reports of the street operatives go, and apparently the boys have swung into the fedoras with nary a murmur.

There was a time when wearing a straw hat the day after or a couple of days after September 15th, was like starting three cheers for Andrew Volstead at a Bartender's picnic. It usually brought trouble in gobs.

Citizens who ordinarily followed the tenor of their ways, paid their taxes, voted straight and sang bass in the church choir, were transformed into modern editions of Attila the Hun on September 16th. Some primitive urge seemed to rise up and grip them by the throat and for one day, at least, they destroyed with all the gusto of a cave man.

But not this year. Seems as though the arbiters of style overlooked the necessity of calling attention to the fact that insurance companies did not allow for the wearing of straw hats after September 15th and the 16th passed without a casualty.

Now the only difficulty is that last year's old felt may be a trifle off side as compared to this year's models. It was last year anyway and the year before, but there is still hope that in a couple of years it will be back in the mode.

Those keystone decorations for the right side of your windshield are becoming more common. Between now and October 31, you will have to get one, although how some of the inspectors have the heart to pass some of the wrecks is a mystery.

If the young lady who nearly tied traffic on the Mill street bridge in a double bow knot the other afternoon will try and remember that when the light goes red, it means to stop, we'll all be better off. She was coming up from South street to make a turn onto the bridge. Before she got to the turn the light went red, right in her face, and the north and south traffic started to move. Did the lady stop? She did not, and for a tense moment drivers of about four cars began wondering if their insurance policy was in force.

The turn on to that bridge is one that requires considerable agility and the young lady was driving a car about half a block long. All that was needed to complete the scene was to have had a wet day for those wooden blocks on the bridge and that sharp turn are guaranteed to cause trouble.

Looks as though the St. Louis Nationals are conspiring to do Tommy Blake out of his vacation. Tommy had it all planned that if the A's and Brooklyn won the pennants, he would spend his vacation time commuting between the Quaker City and Flatbush. Now it appears as though the Cardinals had upset his plans.

Piles Go Quick

Without Selves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, after years of study discovered a real internal Pile remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. He prescribed it for 1000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 960 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money back guarantee.

Dr. Leonhardt's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and McKee's or Eckerd's invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if it does not end all Pile misery.

Incendiary Held Responsible For Big Coop Blaze

Improved Chicken Coop Of Railroad Ties Leveled In $150 Fire Wednesday

Fire believed to have been started by incendiary means after prowlers had made an unsuccessful attempt to enter, destroyed a huge chicken coop South Cherry street, Wednesday, causing $150 damage.

Firemen who arrived on the scene found the structure nearly destroyed and practically all of the 100 chickens whose home had been in the particular coop saved by the owner.

Police told firemen he had been harassed by chicken thieves for a long time. Recently he decided to thwart their successful operations in his coops by building a strong chicken house from old railroad ties. The new coop was kept locked. Police believes the thieves, folled by the strongly-built house had started the fire.
